Women's Basketball Hosts Fontbonne Tonight

The Lindenwood women's basketball team opened the season last weekend with a 2-0 record. It will look to continue its best start in four years tonight when it hosts Fontbonne at 7 p.m. in Hyland Arena. Last year's conference Freshman of the Year Kallie Bildner is off to a great start, averaging 23.0 points and 15.5 rebounds a game, and Jerricah Butler is also averaging double-figure points. The team's defense is holding opponents to just 47 points a game, and opponents are shooting under 30 percent from the field. The visiting Griffins will be having their season opener against the Lady Lions.
