News & Notes ...

Counseling Program Growing

Lindenwood College's professional and school counseling program was well represented at the Missouri Counseling Association Annual Convention in Jefferson City March 7-10.

Pam Nickels, assistant professor of counseling, presented the results of a research project she is completing on Counselor Values. Marilyn Patterson, associate professor of counseling, facilitated a forum for graduate students research presentations. Four recent Lindenwood graduates presented the results of their thesis projects. They are Linda Marshall, Linda Leong, Cynthia Presson and Nancy Gongaware. Sarah Couch, graduate student and assistant, coordinated conference registration and involved several Lindenwood students as volunteers during the conference. David Inabinett served as the student representative to the MCA executive board.

ABD

Congratulations to John Tieman, adjunct instructor in LCIE, is now officially "A.B.D." He is working on his dissertation "The Law of Higher Education."

Beautiful Music

"Four Hands, Four Feet" will be performing March 31 at 2:30 p.m. in Sibley Chapel. Lindenwood's own Ann E. Shields, graduate student, and Vicky Kiehl will play duets on the Wicks Organ. Cordelia Buck Stumberg, '40, will make a special appearance. Call Marsha Parker at x4906 for reservations.

Sunday Series

Lindenwood College's fine and performing arts division has been invited to establish a Sunday Series at the St. Peters City Hall. Various groups from the College will perform throughout the year in the multipurpose room of City Hall.

Sunday, March 17

Vocal Concert

Sunday, April 14

Saxophone & Voice Concert

All concerts begin at 4:00 p.m.

Important Seminar

A seminar on eating disorders will be presented on March 21 7-8 p.m. in Irwin Lounge. Judy Thomas of St. Joseph's Health Center will speak on this very important matter.

Thanks for the Help

LindenScroll's campus wide clothing and food drive delivered about 150 lbs. of clothing and a box of food to St. Vincent De Paul Society in Wentzville and FISH in Cave Springs. Thanks to all who helped, especially Cindy Varnedoe, Carin Albright, Brenda Cochran and all who contributed clothing. A special thanks to Joyce and Pam in the security office for putting up with the many bags and boxes.

LC Professor and the Army

Richard Kotch (Lt. Col. U.S. Army Reserves) has been appointed as Language Officer of a major U.S. Army Civil Affairs Brigade. He will teach the Spanish language to subordinate army commands throughout the midwest. Kotch will also serve as the escort officer for Latin American military and political VIP's visiting the United States.

Nickels and Missouri View

Pam Nickels, assistant professor of counseling, has been asked to serve on the Missouri VIEW Advisory Committee. The Missouri VIEW provides computer software, videotapes, and other multimedia materials on careers, training programs, financial aid as well as a comprehensive computerized career decision-making system.

Our Talented Faculty

Michael Mason, assistant professor of religion, will be performing Chicago, March 14-24 at the New City School. Call 241-3888 for ticket information and times. Mason plays the banjo, with a 30 minute solo set.

Give Blood

American Humanics and the American Red Cross is sponsoring a blood drive in Butler Gym from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 21. Call x4990 to set up a time to donate, or stop by the table in the cafeteria or outside of Butler Hall.

Happy St. Patrick's Day

Let Us Know!

Communique is a monthly newsletter for the faculty, staff and administration of Lindenwood College. We welcome any anecdotes, news, information and input. We would also like to receive a copy of your event flyers. Please submit information in writing by the 14th of each month to the Office of Public Relations, Roemer 105, ext. 4912/4913. Communique is distributed on the 15th of each month.

Quote of the Month...

"I am only one, but I am one. I can't do everything, but I can do something. What I can do, I ought to do. And what I ought to do, by the grace of God, I will do."

--Edward Everett Hale
20th Century American clergyman and author
