Linden Wood, St. Cha<sup>s</sup>. 27 Octo, 1830.

To A. Leonard Esq.
Atty at Law
Franklin, Mo.

Dear Sir,

In Rummaging my Ft. Osage Papers this morning, I find the enclosed Note of Mr. Joseph Cooper, of your neighborhood, for Twenty five Dollars, which it seems was due on the 1<sup>t</sup> March last- It was given for a Horse purchased by Mr. Cooper at my Stock-Sale at Ft. Osage last October, and was deposited among the other notes of that Sale, which I am not sending off for collection-

Presuming you may have frequent opportunities of seeing Mr. Cooper, I would ask the favour of you to present this little note for payment, at some convenient moment. Receive the Amt. from him, and account to me for it when convenient.

We have nothing new here- except that our new Judge does not appear to take well- this is certainly new, but it is by no means Strange- The papers will tell you now completely Jacksonism is up-rooted in Maryland-

Y<sup>rs</sup>. very truly

G. C. Sibley
