Today's Headlines

Christmas Walk Sunday

Lindenwood University will hold its annual Christmas Walk on its St. Charles campus from 4 to 7 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 3. Featuring a variety of holiday sights, sounds, and activities, the event is free and open to the public.

Attractions include a visit with Santa and a real reindeer, holiday stories with Mrs. Claus, live music, holiday karaoke, ornament decorating, and activities for all ages. All events will be held on the heritage side of campus, which will be lit by hundreds of luminaries lining the walkways.

The event is traditionally held as a gesture to the community to welcome the holiday season.

“This is a wonderful tradition on our campus,” said Christie Rodgers, associate vice president for Student and Academic Support Services and an organizer of the event. “It’s an opportunity for us to welcome the community onto our campus and celebrate the holiday season.”

For more information, call (636) 949-4975.

Weekend Basketball Action

The Lindenwood basketball teams will both be home this weekend as the men’s and women’s programs continue their non-conference schedules. On Friday evening at 6 p.m., the women’s team will take on Central Christian College of the Bible. Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m., the men’s team will be in action against Ecclesia. Both games will be the final tuneups before conference play starts on Dec. 7 at Pittsburg State.

Elmes Elected Vice President for Society for Medieval Feminist Scholarship

Melissa "Melle" Elmes has been elected to the Vice President position for the Society for Medieval Feminist Scholarship. This is an international organization with several hundred members, focused on promoting and engaging with scholarship related to women's and gender studies as well as activism to promote equity, diversity, and inclusion within the field of medieval studies generally, and the academy more broadly.

The organization partners with several others, including the UK-based Gender and Medieval Studies group (<http://medievalgender.co.uk/>) with whom they are sponsoring a joint-conference in 2018. The SMFS Vice-President's position is a two-year term, after which Professor Elmes will automatically move into the President's position for another two-year term.

Winter Break Reminder

Lindenwood will be closed from Dec. 22, 2017 – Jan. 1, 2018. While most of the offices in St. Charles and Belleville will be closed, for the convenience of students, prospective students, and their families, several key offices will remain open.

The Admissions Office, Financial Aid, Business Office, and Advisement, Retention and Certification Center (ARCC) will be open from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 27 and Thursday, Dec. 28. Academic Services will be open Thursday, Dec. 28 only from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. ARCC will also take appointments during the winter break. Students should contact arcc@lindenwood.edu or call Dr. Tammy T. Moore at 618-626-7027

The office closures are in observance of Christmas and New Year's holidays. All Lindenwood offices will reopen on for business on Tuesday, Jan. 2.

Parking on Watson Street Remains Restricted

Due to a water project by the City of St. Charles northeast of the St. Charles campus, parking on Watson Street remains restricted until that portion of the project is completed. All students and employees are encouraged to give themselves extra time in the morning to find available parking. Nearby lots include the Roemer Hall and Harmon Hall lots and the parking lot of the Presbyterian Church at Sibley and Gamble Streets.

Updates will be posted when they become available.
