

News & Notes ...

Michael Stein, associate professor of sociology, presented a paper entitled "Safe Spaces: Towards a Sociology of Havens" at the Stone-Couch Symposium in Nottingham, England on July 17. Another paper, "Seeing Ourselves: Exploring the Social Production of Criminological Knowledge in A Qualitative Methods Course," has been published in the Spring issue of the Journal of Criminal Justice Education.

Michael Castro, professor of humanities in LCIE, was a featured artist in a Poetry Evening at Stoá Gallery of North Petaluma, Calif. in June. The event was sponsored by Reade Moore Books.

Jann Weitzel, assistant professor of education and John Dougherty, associate professor of education, reviewed Freedom to Learn, 3rd edition, by Carol Rogers and H. Jerome Freiberg for Kappa Delta Phi. They have not received a date for the publishing of their review. Dougherty and Laura Rutter, assistant professor in education, reviewed The Art of Loving Well, a project of Boston University; for possible distribution by the National Middle School Association. John also recently completed a two-day analysis and workshop for St. Robert's School in St. Charles., about the components of a middle school and how St. Robert's could incorporate some of these components.

Dennis Spellmann, president, received a doctorate of humane letters from his alma mater, Missouri Valley College. He is the featured speaker at the opening ceremonies for Kemper Military Academy and Junior College on August 30.

Congratulations to John Tieman, adjunct professor in LCIE, who received his Ph.D. in history and philosophy of education from St. Louis University August 1. John's dissertation, In Loco Sacerdotis: Toward A Reimagining of In Loco Parentis, discusses certain aspects of the law of education, as well as the history of the relationship of teachers and students. He wrote his dissertation in four months. Tieman is also co-authoring a series of articles about the history, philosophy and the law of education, together with Gerard Fowler of the education department of St. Louis University. Three poems by Tieman appear in the current issue of Drumvoices Revue, published by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Debbie Nicolai, director of audio visual and office manager of KCLC, was appointed to the Family Self Sufficiency Board, which is part of the Northeast Community Action Corporation (NECAC), a non-profit agency. The board assists in planning and coordination of events which impact family life.

Kickoff!

Our big fall sports kickoff is set for next Saturday, September 7, in Harlen Hunter Stadium. The women's soccer team will sting the Graceland Yellow Jackets at noon, the men take on the Avila Avalanche at 2:00 p.m., and the Lions football team attack the McKendree Bearcats at 7:00 p.m. Between games, you can feast on a delicious campus barbecue from 4:30-6:30 p.m.

Remember, as a Lindenwood employee, you may attend sporting events (and performing arts events) at no charge. Ticket information for family and friends, and the barbecue is on the back.

We encourage you to attend one or all of these events. It will be a big day for our students., and we are making it a special celebration of St. Charles County. We really need faculty and staff volunteers for this day. If any of you would like to help during one of the games, selling tickets, etc., please contact Gary Greene in the Development Office at ext. 4903. Thank you! See you there!

Let Us Know!

Communique is a monthly newsletter for the faculty, staff and administration of Lindenwood College. We welcome any anecdotes, news, information and input. We would also like to receive a copy of your event flyers. Please submit information in writing by the 14th of each month to the Office of Public Relations, Roemer 105, ext. 4912/4913. Communique is distributed on the 15th of each month.

Quote of the Month...

"There are some things one can only achieve by a deliberate leap in the opposite direction. One has to go abroad in order to find the home one has lost."

--Franz Kafka
