12:00 p.m. Reception

Quadrangle

I also want to remind all employees that Lindenwood College will be open from 8:30 a.m. until noon on Saturday, May 17, 1997. All offices are to remain open and staffed during this time.

All faculty and staff are requested to park on the lower lot by the stadium on the morning of Commencement Day. A shuttle service will be provided to and from this lot. Parking in faculty and staff lots, particularly adjacent to Roemer, is reserved for graduates, their families and guests attending Commencement.

News & Notes

A fond farewell to Professors Jim Feely and Jim Hood as they retire from academic life at Lindenwood College. Jim Feely has taught English at Lindenwood since 1958, and is the official marshal at college commencement ceremonies. Jim Hood started teaching history here in 1961. Both men will be conferred professor emeritus during the Commencement ceremony.

Congratulations to Brian Watkins and wife Shannon on the birth of their first child, Elizabeth Ann, Wednesday, April 23. Little Ellie weighed in at 7 pounds, 13 ounces, and everyone is doing well. The proud papa is director of the American Humanics program at LC.

Many wishes for a speedy recovery to Jim Evans, dean of sciences, after an accident at his home.

Joseph Cernik, professor of political science, is a contributing writer to West Newsmagazine in West County. A recent article "The Impending Problem: Public Funding of AIDS in Missouri," was published in the January 8 issue of the paper.

John Dougherty, associate professor of education, and Jann Weitzel, assistant professor of education, reviewed Freedom To Learn, by Carl Rogers and H. Jerome Freiberg, 3rd edition, 1994. Their review was published in the Kappa Delta Pi Record, Winter 1997 issue.

Donna Card Charron's review of the book Economics in the Medieval Schools, by Odd Langholm, appeared in the November 1996 issue of The Modern Schoolman, a quarterly journal of philosophy. She is an assistant professor of philosophy and business.

Congratulations to English Professor Ann Canale on passing her "nidan" exam, thereby achieving second degree black belt ranking in shotokan karate. A member of the American Shotokan Karate Alliance, Canale teaches karate at Lindenwood. Our students have advanced through the level of purple belt through the St. Louis branch of the ASKA. The classes are offered during the first eight weeks of each semester. The classes continue, as a Karate Club activity, through the rest of the semester. All faculty, staff and students are welcome to join in karate training for physical fitness, confidence, self-protection, and fun. Contact Ann at ext. 4871 for more information.

Jan Garden Castro, adjunct instructor of humanities in LCIE, was a fellow at The Camargo Foundation in Cassis, France, for the Fall 1996 term, working on a cultural biography of artist Sonia Delaunay. Her essay on "Laumeier Sculpture Park" was published in the November 1996 issue of Sculpture Magazine. She is newly appointed to the board of Point of Contact Magazine at Syracuse University and is serving a second term on the board of Tampa Review at Tampa University.

Attention Event Organizers

All requests to book campus facilities for events or meetings must be made through Joyce Norman in the Business Service Center. Stop by the Center between the hours of 7 am-6 pm Monday through Friday to obtain the appropriate form.

Quote of the Month...

"Both tears and sweat are salty, but they render a different result. Tears will get you sympathy, sweat will get you change."
