Main Campus Enrollment Will Break Record Monday

Lindenwood University's resident student enrollment will climb to an all-time high of 3,475 on Monday when LU begins its 180th year.

All total, Lindenwood's enrollment at the main campus and other campuses will eclipse 15,000 sometime in 2007. That new record will be buoyed by strong numbers in teacher education, and in enrollment at Lindenwood's numerous off-site campuses.

Official enrollments are not counted until early October, so as students drop and add during that period, final numbers may change slightly.
