

THE LINDENWOOD COLLEGE PLAYERS

present

I AM A CAMERA

by

John Van Druten

Adapted from "The Berlin Stories" of Christopher Isherwood

Directed by

ANN CHRISTINE LOHRMAN

Under the supervision of

ROBERT DOUGLAS HUME*

Fellowship Hall

May 9-10, 1969

8:00 p. m.

CAST

(in order of appearance)

Christopher Isherwood	Viktor Kemper*
Fraulein Schneider	Marsha Hollander
Fritz Wendel	Larry Ruebling
Sally Bowles	Gail Leussler
Natalia Landauer	Gail Driver
Clive Mortimer	Reid Bronson
Mrs. Watson-Courtneidge	Carolinda Cowles

All the action of the play takes place in a room in Fraulein Schneider's flat in Berlin in 1930, before the rise of the Hitler regime.

ACT I

- Scene 1: A summer evening
- Scene 2: About three months later

ACT II

- Scene 1: Ten days later
- Scene 2: Five days later

ACT III

- Scene 1: Two days later
- Scene 2: Afternoon, about three days later
- Scene 3: Three days later. Evening

There will be a 10 minute intermission between acts

CREW

Stage Manager	Diane Ruhl
Assistant Stage Manager	Janet Hoffmann
Properties	Kathy Yaffe
Make-up	Ada Sanders
	Jo Tomcak
	Ellen Hecht
Lights and sound	Janet Hoffmann
Publicity	Viktor Kemper
	Dan White
House Manager	Kathy Pfeifer*
Usher	Kathi Krueger

*Members of Alpha Psi Omega

Pledges

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Mr. Charles Bushnell and Staff

Mr. Bill Knichel

Special thanks to Mr. Viktor Kemper a '68 alumnae of Lindenwood and to Mr. Larry Ruebling and Mr. Reid Bronson, students at St. Charles High School

Produced by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc., New York.

This play won the New York Drama Critics Award in 1957. It was also awarded one of the "Ten Best Plays" of the 1957-58 Broadway season. The musical version, Cabaret, is currently on Broadway.