Today's Headlines

Representatives of the United States Postal Service, SSM Health St. Joseph Hospital–St. Charles, Lindenwood University, and St. Charles city and county cut the ribbon on Aug. 1 for the new U.S. Postal Service offices in the University Commons development across the street from Lindenwood's campus.

"This is a great day for everyone with the Postal Service," stated Charley Miller, Gateway District manager. "This building allows us to continue our pursuit of strong customer service while enhancing the work environment for our employees." Read more

Important Announcement for Online/Hybrid Faculty & Instructors

Effective in all fall 2016 terms, faculty and instructors who teach online or hybrid courses are required to administer Lindenwood's Student Authentication Policy (attached). This is a federal requirement and your cooperation is very important and greatly appreciated. For assistance, please contact your campus or school Canvas administrator.

Note: This policy is not required in on-campus (face-to-face) or semi-hybrid classes.

JCC Maccabi Games Coming Up Aug. 1-3

Lindenwood University will be hosting the JCC Maccabi Games from August 1-3. During this time all people associated with Lindenwood University entering the Evans Commons Building and Hyland Arena must show their Lindenwood I.D. at the entrance to be allowed into the building or be accompanied by a person with a Lindenwood University I.D. All spectators and competing athletes in the JCC Maccabi Games must have a Maccabi Games I.D. or a ticket. There are no exceptions to this policy. If you do not produce an I.D., you will not be allowed to enter the building. The Evans Commons Rec Center Courts will be closed during these days. The Evans Commons Fitness Center will still be open for use for students, faculty, and staff.
