Salt-Humbug

A. B. Chambers

St. Louis Sept 25th 39

Dr Sir

I send you Col Bentons thirty Salt queries in the Argus, a copy of which I have mailed with this letter, supposing you do not receive the paper. I submit to your better judgment wheather it is not the duty of Solomon Salt to reply to these interrogatories. The time was when Solomon gave some valuable information on this humbug & no time could be more propitious for the dissemination of further light than now when the humbug is revived. If your pen is not worn out or laid aside forever I shall be rejoiced and have no doubt but my readers generally will to hear from you again.

Excuse my freedom and attribute to the right motive. Please let me hear from you.

Respectfully yours &

A. B. Chambers
