Nonprofit Administration Program Invites Campus to Package Food

The Nonprofit Administration program are serving as a host to Kids Against Hunger as they set up a two-day, community-wide food packing event in Hyland Arena. It is a tremendous opportunity to involve your departments/schools/offices as well as your classes, student associations or even friends and neighbors.

Volunteers will help package the nutrient-rich, dehydrated rice and soy mixtures noon to 8:30 p.m. on Oct. 14 and 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Oct. 15 at Evans Commons. For more information on the event, read the news item on our website.

United Way Blues Night

The St. Louis Blues will support United Way of Greater St. Louis at the Oct. 15 game versus the New York Rangers. Purchase your tickets through this special offer, and $5 of the ticket price will benefit United Way.

Get your tickets now at: www.stlouisblues.com/unitedway and use promo code UW2016 or see the flyer for other ways to order tickets.

Can't come to the game? Blues for Kids will hold a special silent auction benefitting United Way of Greater St. Louis. Bid at the game or at home. Visit blues.myab.co to register from home using your computer or tablet. From your mobile device text "blues" to 52182. Bidding on the items begins Friday, Oct. 14 at NOON CT and will close Saturday, Oct. 15 at the end of the 2nd intermission of the Blues game. Auction items will be on display at the game on the concourse at Section 114.

Let's Go Blues!

Assessment Tip of the Week

The Assessment Committee recently approved the Lindenwood Institutional Assessment Plan, a document that brings all elements of our assessment program together in one place. This document provides a comprehensive overview of what we are doing in assessment and gives us a great tool for communicating about our assessment program both internally and externally (e.g., with the Higher Learning Commission). Coffee, Cookies, and Continuous Improvement: “Curriculum Mapping Follow-Up”

Mark your calendars for an upcoming workshop presented as part of the “Coffee, Cookies, and Continuous Improvement” presentation/workshop series:

“Curriculum Mapping Follow-Up”

- Wednesday, Nov. 9, 2016 at 3 p.m. in the Leadership Room in Spellmann (Note: the date and location have been revised from what was previously announced.)
- This will be an interactive workshop with mentors ready to assist you.
- The workshop is intended primarily for those programs currently working on curriculum mapping although others are welcome to attend. Participants are encouraged to bring drafts of their curriculum maps.
- Reminder: for all pilot programs currently working on curriculum maps, the maps are due on the last class day of the fall, 2016 semester.

Parade, Pageantry, and Parties as Belleville Celebrates Homecoming (BV)

Lindenwood University–Belleville will celebrate Parents, Family, and Alumni Reunion Weekend in a big way this year, throwing a three-day party highlighted by the school's first ever homecoming parade.

“We have amped up Parents, Family, and Alumni Reunion Weekend to include more alumni engagement and stronger community relations initiatives and would like for you, our alumni, parents, family, students, and community members, to celebrate with us,” said Jennifer Ferguson, director of alumni relations at Lindenwood Belleville. “We have a little something for everyone, from our inaugural Homecoming parade to a plethora of athletic events. We look forward to celebrating Parents, Family, and Alumni Reunion Weekend at Homecoming 2016 with you.”
