Today's Headlines

Registration Full for Beginner Social Media Workshop

Registration is now full for the “Making Social Media Work for You” beginner social media training workshop scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 15, in the Sprecklemeyer Meeting Room inside Hyland Arena’s VIP Room. Due to the initial response, additional dates will be scheduled. If you wish to participate in a beginner social media workshop hosted by the Office of Marketing and Communications, RSVP to socialmedia@lindenwood.edu and you will be placed on a participant list for a future session.

A “Social Media Best Practices” intermediate-level workshop is being planned for late February 2017. Additional details and registration information will follow in an upcoming edition of the Lindenwood Digest.

Thursday Night Basketball Doubleheader at Hyland Arena

The Lindenwood basketball teams will host Missouri Western in a MIAA doubleheader on Thursday night at Hyland Arena. The women’s game will tipoff at 5:30 p.m., followed by the men’s contest at 7:30 p.m. Both Lindenwood teams are coming off big road victories at Fort Hays State, an arena neither team had won at before this season. Missouri Western is fifth in the MIAA standings on the women’s side, and 12th in the men’s rankings.

Admission for both contests is free for all Lindenwood faculty and staff.

Lindenwood University Speaker Series with Callie Crossley

“Beyond the Headlines: Turning the Media’s Messages into Civic Action” with award-winning television and radio commentator Callie Crossley Tuesday, Feb. 7 at 7 p.m. in the Anheuser-Busch Leadership Room.

"What are the characteristics of effective curricula?"

I'm working on a book chapter on curriculum design, and I've come up with eight characteristics of effective curricula, whether for a course, program, general education, or co-curricular experience: Read more

Congratulations to Dana Delibovi

Adjunct Professor of Philosophy Dana Delibovi recently published an article on critical thinking in oncology nursing entitled "Lymphoma Therapy and Adverse Events: Nursing strategies for thinking critically and acting decisively."

The article is a collaboration between an oncology nurse (Goodrich), a physician (Wagner-Johnston), and a philosopher (Delibovi).

This is her fourth philosophic publication since 2015.
