ANNUAL MUSICAL COMEDY, "SO THIS IS COLLEGE"

We're collegiate, boy and how We'll show you, here and now!
We're collegiate, well I guess
College girls, yes, yes, yes!
We're in college not for knowledge,
But for the fun,
Our school joys will be boys,
We love each one.
Each fraternity just means more dates you see;
Neat men, small men, sweet men,
tall men,
We will surely find, and won't mind!
Fun and frolic, work and trouble,
friends, frivolity,
So this is college, you see!

Do the words suggest the fun, the work, the friendships of college life?

The "Varsity Drag" which took place at the Chi Alpha Theta House, Tait College, California, on the first day of school, was a most appropriate opening number for the musical comedy "So This Is College", given by the Linden-wood Athletic Association in Roemer Auditorium at eight o'clock Friday evening, March 9.

In Act I, two of the older Chi Alpha Theta sisters, Frances Ripley "Rip" (Sue Campbell), and Dolly Baxter (Abigail Holmes) decide to pledge Annabel Lee (Betty Barnes), a freshman, when she comes to the House by mistake. She tells the girls that the young man who brought her there in his Ford assured her it was her boarding house.
The girls immediately smell "Ham"—

Hamilton Tillman (Ruth Bullion) who is a very handsome, very popular, but rather questionable character about the campus. Two months later Diane Adams, also a Chi Alpha Theta, transferred from the university, who does not like Annabel because she has attracted the attention of Drew Walters (Harriet Liddle), a new man on the campus and already an idol, suggests that the entrance of the new girl and the disappearance of her diamond bracelet may have some connection. Mrs. Patterson (Marcia Wallace), Chi Alpha Theta chaperone, doubts this accusation. In the meantime "Ham" has done Annabel the honor of asking her for a date, and although she wants to accept, she thinks possibly the older girls are right, maybe she "isn't his type". And while "Ham", at the Delta Omega Gamma House, awaits the call and decision of this pretty, charming freshman who has completely fascinated him, she contemplates college life, and wonders if a date with the dashing, handsome "Ham" will really bring unpleasant notoriety. "Reducing Chorus", "So This Is College", "Way Back When",
and "You Aren't the Type", by members of the Athletic Association, add much college flavor to the first act.

Act II introduces the members of the Delta Omega Gamma fraternity.
"Ham" and Drew are members, as are also Johnson Smythe "Percy" (Martha Brinkerhoff) who wins the love of Dolly Baxter even though he tells her of his devotion through Shelley, and Wayne Williams "Doc" (Ruth Lindsay Hughes) who expresses his emotions, including his love for "Rip", by means of the piano. The Frat pledges, Mildred Henney, Marjorie Bright, Alice May Reynolds, Dorothy Jane Fogwell, and Lucille Kelly, at the mercy of the older brothers, offer a lot of humor, as does Rastus (Betty Kelso).

This act reveals the fact that some money has disappeared from "Doc" William's room during a dance at the Delta House, and also that "Ham", who has played with the affections of many girls, and who is not used to being refused, is really seriously in love with Annabel, and is very much hurt by her refusal.

The musical numbers in the second act are "Ham On Ice", "Charleston", "Just a Memory", "Gypsy Chorus", "Changes", "We, My Honey and Me", and "Who Is the Thief?".

In Act III "Ham" is accused of taking the money, but Rastus tells him privately that he saw "Mistah Drew" take it. "Ham" believes that Drew was speaking the truth when he told him that he and Annabel were engaged, and rather than involve Annabel in a scandal, he decides to take the blame. When Annabel hears of the accusation, she immediately comes to "Ham" and professes her belief in his innocence, but Diane saves the situation by confessing that she and Drew, to whom she had formerly been engaged, took everything that was missing. Musical numbers of Act III are "Tennis Chorus", "Ham In Dutch", "Boola-Boola", and "Ham In Love".

All the parts were splendidly acted, and everyone was doubly interested in the play because it represents the ability of two Lindenwood students. The words of "So This Is College" were written by Miss Kathryn Walker of Aurora, Mo., and the music by Miss Helen Roper of West Plains, Mo. It was directed by Miss Lucia Hutchins, Barbara Eschbach, and Gene Gustavus. Miss Jane Everett was pianist.

Dr. Gipson Enjoys Conference

Dr. Alice E. Gipson attended the annual National Convention of Deans of Colleges and Universities held in Boston from Feb. 27 through March 1. At the same time a meeting of the Department of Superintendents was held.

Dr. Gipson says that one of the most interesting and outstanding speeches was made by President Lowell, of Harvard, who criticized the high schools for the lack of accuracy and completeness of the training they are giving. The secondary schools often fail to fit the student, not only for college, but for life as well.

While in Boston, Dr. Gipson saw William Hodge in his own play "Straight Through the Door". She especially enjoyed "The Royal Family", which she saw in New York, where she spent the weekend. This was a most amusing portrayal of the daily life at the home of a family of actors and actresses, supposedly the Barrymore family. While one member of the family is having breakfast, another is lunching, and still another is having dinner, and all the while the doorbell and telephone are ringing, flowers and clothes are arriving, and there is much talk of rehearsals.

After the conference, Dr. Gipson stopped over in New London, New Haven, and Washington. Dr. Gipson met Miss Josephine MacClatchy, a former teacher at Lindenwood, and Miss Florence Jackson, while on her trip.

Lure of "Fourth Estate"

Mrs. Edwin James McKee (Willie Adelyn Faris, Lindenwood 1915-17), who was trained in the "fourth estate", has returned to her old field of activity, and is now connected with the "Standard", of Excelsior Springs, Mo. She specializes in "Society", and "the churches", and writes that she finds newspaper work even more thrilling than her club.

A TRIBUTE TO ROBERT IRWIN, D. D.

(President of Lindenwood College, 1880-1893)

By One Who Knew Him

He stood a pillar of unblemished worth, Whom all could trust, and not a few would love;

Who placed his faith upon the Word above,

And made it helpful to the folks on earth.

Right genial he, and fond of honest mirth,

For happy home and brotherhood he strove;

And round his personality he wove Sereneness that to confidence gave birth.

Pastor by calling, wed to courteous ways,

He led his flock along the paths of truth;

Then to the halls of Lindenwood
he came,

To be the guide and counselor of youth;

For years built up a loved and honored name,

And fair alumnae still resound his praise.

James Main Dixon

The above sonnet was written as a tribute to the splendid character of Dr.
Irwin, by Dr. James Main Dixon, of the Department of Comparative Literature at the University of Southern California.

AROUND THE WORLD

One of Lindenwood's former teachers of Physical Education, Cornelia Haire Mustarde, is having a most interesting trip around the world. Dr. and Mrs.
Roemer received a card from her postmarked Jerusalem, Feb. 28. She writes: "We have found this ancient city most interesting, but we are seeing it through snow and sleet. We leave tomorrow for Cairo, Egypt".

Clara Rabinovitch in Recital

On Thursday evening, February 23, Miss Clara Rabinovitch presented a very beautiful program in Roemer Auditorium. Miss Rabinovitch is an artist of great talent, and is well known throughout this country and in Europe.
She has just finished an extensive tour of Europe, and offered her first American concert at Lindenwood.

It is interesting to know that Miss Rabinovitch has four complete programs at her disposal. The one which she presented at Lindenwood was divided into three groups. The first began with the "Prelude and Fugue in E minor" by Mendelssohn. This rather heavy composition was followed by "Two Sonatas".

The second group was entirely Chopin. Her interpretation of "Noeturne" "Three Waltzes, "Berceuse", and "Scherzo" was exquisite and received so much applause that she played an encore.

The third group consisted of Ravel's
"Ondine", "Spanish Dance", and
"Dances Roumaines".

Miss Rabinovitch played three very lovely encores to her concert. She charmed her audience from the moment she struck the first chord until the last sweet echo died away. The recital was splendidly balanced and beautifully rendered, and Lindenwood was pleased and honored to hear Miss Rabinovitch's first American concert of 1928.

BIBLE CONTEST

The Freshmen are competing for the Dorothy Holtkamp Bible prize of twenty-five dollars which is to go to the girl who quotes from memory the greatest number of Bible verses.

Another prize of twenty-five dollars is offered by Dr. Roemer to the upper classman who submits the best paper on "The Minor Prophets, the men, their problems, messages, and their significance for to-day".

These prizes are well worth working for, and the girls who win them will win far more than twenty-five dollars.

Y. W. C. A. Lenten Services

The Y. W. C. A. at Lindenwood has started a new movement, and has been doing a great deal to keep up the spirit of the Lenten season. Every Sunday morning at 11:30, since the beginning of the Lenten season, services have been held in Roemer Auditorium. The Y. W. sent out cards which read as follows:

"Under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association of Lindenwood College Lenten Services will be conducted by the President of the College, beginning Feb. 26, 1928. The Y. W. C. A. cordially requests every student to be present at these services.

Subjects To Be Discussed

Feb. 26, Proper Pronunciation.

March 4, Where to look for a better world.

March 11, Putting away childish things.

March 18, Biggest and best things of life.

March 25, First things first.

April 1, The Master Motive.

The first of the services was held Sunday morning, Feb. 26, and was lead by the Cabinet. The Cabinet members were dressed in white, and white candles burned on the stage. Several selections were sung by the sextet, composed of Francis Whitaker, Marjorie Smith, Margarete Nicholls, Jean Whitney, Hortense Wolfert, and Lillian Wolff. Mary Elizabeth Sawtell and Marjorie Bright read prayers. Selections on Prayer were read by Virginia Ott, Ruth Bullion, and Abigail Holmes. The President, Kathryn Walker, opened the meeting with a short speech on the true meaning of the special service.

Dr. Roemer's discourse on "Proper Pronunciation" was very interesting. He spoke of the great number of possibilities there are of mispronouncing words, but the three words which should be most seriously considered are "God", "I", and "they". "God", "I" and "they", when pronounced correctly, put us in proper relations with the divine and human life, and to our responsibilities, which will give meaning to our sojourn in this land of our pilgrimage.

The subject for discussion for March 4, was "Where to look for a better world". There are many answers to the question "What is the matter with the world?". Dr. Roemer suggested that some of these answers were lack of leadership, "Golditis", "Moral Atrophy". There are many answers to the question "What is the matter?", and there are as many remedies suggested. Some of these cries are "Give us law", "Psychology", "Eugenics".

"Not head culture, but heart culture, is going to save this world. Where are we to look for a better world? Not without, but within."

The Y. W. C. A. has done an admirable thing by inaugurating these Lenten services. The meetings, under the auspices of the members of the Y. W., with the interesting and beneficial talks by Dr. Roemer, are very enjoyable.

COMMENCEMENT NEWS

At three o'clock on May 27, Dr. Jay T. Stocking, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational Church of St. Louis, will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon.

The commencement address, on Tuesday, May 29, is to be given by Dr. Harry M. Crooks, president of Alma College, Alma, Michigan.

The commencement concert, on Monday evening, May 28, at eight o'clock, is to be given by Miss Margery Maxwell, who is a well known coloratura soprano with the Ravinia Opera Company.

"Guest Day" and Dinner Party

The annual "Guest Day" meeting of the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club, given at the Congress Hotel Monday afternoon, Feb. 27, at 2:30 o'clock, was a most enjoyable affair. It was a musical tea, and the program was given by guests from Lindenwood. Dr. and Mrs. Roemer took a quartette of Lindenwood girls, Marjorie Smith, Hortense Wolfert Louise Blake, and Lillian Wolf, in their car, while Miss Alice Linnemann, Miss Grace Terhune, Miss Gertrude Isidor, and Miss Lucia Hutchins, of the faculty, drove in with Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas.

The quartette, accompanied by Miss Terhune, opened the program with "Hidden Song". Miss Isidor then played two violin solos, "Ave Maria", and a "Spanish Dance", with "Old Refrain" as an encore. Miss Hutchins presented a beautiful musical reading, "The River of Stars", by Noyes, with the musical accompaniment by Clarence Bowden, with a French Canadian poem, "Pelong" by Drummond, as her encore. Miss Terhune sang "Estrellita" by La Forge, and "Awakening" by Golde, with "The Old Hoot Owl" as an encore.

The quartette then sang "Will o' the Wisp" by Spross, and finished the program with the Lindenwood Hymn.

Delicious refreshments were served, and everyone had a good time renewing old friendships, and making new acquaintances.

After the tea the party from Lindenwood drove through Forest Park, stopping at the Art Museum, the Municipal Opera, and the Bear Pits. From the park, Dr. and Mrs. Roemer took the faculty and quartette to the Missouri Athletic Club for a splendid turkey dinner. The orchestra played all the numbers requested, "Rain", "High Jinks", "Hit the Deck", "Are You Happy", and many others.

It was truly a splendid "Guest Day" for the Lindenwood guests, for they enjoyed every minute of the musical tea, and every minute of Dr. and Mrs. Roemer's dinner party afterwards.

Southern California Club Meeting

An account of the February meeting of the Lindenwood College Club of Southern California, comes from the corresponding secretary, Lillian Glen Prouty, 124 So. New Hampshire, Los Angeles.

"The February meeting of the Lindenwood College Club of Southern California was held at the Masonic Club, 623 So. Grand Ave. Fourteen members of the Club were seated at the luncheon table.

At the close of the luncheon the business meeting was called to order by Mrs. Hubbard, the president. It was voted to make Miss Jeffres and Miss Peebles, both honorary members of the Lindenwood Club. They have recently come to Pasadena to make their home, and will no doubt be remembered by the Lindenwood girls by their recent lectures given at the school.

We were then introduced to Mr. Spaulding, who gave us a very interesting talk on "Earthquakes". The meeting closed by introducing Miss Mitchell, one of our new members who attended Lindenwood last year, and who is now a student at the University of Southern California."

Meeting of Chicago Club

The following account of the March meeting of the Lindenwood Club of Chicago comes from Mrs. John C. Flanagan of 6849 Cornell Avenue:

"The Lindenwood College Club of Chicago met March 9th with Mrs. Wagner (Laura Bruere) and Mrs. Flanagan (Martha McDearmon), at the home of Mrs. Wagner. The attendance was unusually large and included several former Lindenwood students now studying in Chicago.

After the routine business the afternoon was spent socially. Adjourned to meet in April with Mrs. Joice (Rebecca Alden) and Mrs. Funkhouser (Eugenie Mermod)."

ALUMNAE NOTES

Miss Helen L. Hibbard, of 1215 Keeler, Bartlesville, Okla., writes:

"For the calendar, greetings, Lindenwood Bulletin and Alumnae Directory, which have all been received lately, I wish to thank you.

Even though unfamiliar names are found in the Bulletin, I always read every bit from cover to cover as it is all so interesting.

And in return for your pleasant greetings, I wish you a year full of prosperity, broader influence and splendid growth in every department."

A letter from another former student, Catherine Brennan, who is now Mrs. Hy. Lewis, 2nd., 2107 County Ave., Texarkana, Ark., contains her appreciation of every word she hears from Lindenwood. She writes that she pores over these messages "to see if there is any news about my old friends. I'll always have happy memories concerning Lindenwood, and when my little four year old daughter is old enough I shall certainly send her there, if possible".

A letter from "one of the girls of yesterday", Mrs. H. B. Thompson (Glorvina L. Lindsley, Lindenwood 1864), of Hannibal, Mo., has come into the hands of the Bulletin. Mrs. Thompson recalls her enjoyment of Centennial days. She was so greatly surprised at the wonderful change in Lindenwood that she had to be assured by the taxi driver that "this was really the college". Although Mrs. Gauss of St. Charles was the only one in line she knew she enjoyed everything very much and was greatly impressed by the pupils who were "so attentive to me, so well dressed, so courteous at the table. I want to thank every one who made the celebration in May so delightful for me. I am talking of the college often—with success to it".

Mrs. R. T. Cook (Georgia Carol Bear Lindenwood 1921-23), of McCook, Nebraska, thoroughly enjoys her Alumnae Directory which recalls old times, and revives half-forgotten memories. She writes:

"I read it from cover to cover like a child with a story book, and whenever I start to think of L. C. I get the directory and look up some lost friend."

Mrs. Cook was very much disappointed at being unable to return for the Centennial festivities, but home duties demanded her attention. However, she is planning already to come back for May Day this year, for she is sure "no other college has as pretty May Day exercises as Lindenwood".

Miss Margaret Mitchell, who has recently moved to Carlsbad, California, writes that she enjoys hearing of the old friends through the Bulletin, and is anxious to keep in touch with the Lindenwood spirit by becoming associated with the Lindenwood Club of California.

Dorothy Wallace writes that she certainly enjoys "reading about everything that is going on at Lindenwood, and about all the old girls, too". Miss Wallace's New York address appeared in a recent copy of the Bulletin, and she is evidently very happy in her new home, for she adds, "New York certainly is a great place".

IN TRAINING

Miss Amy P. Robinson (Lindenwood 1923-24), formerly of Council Bluffs, Iowa, who is now in training in a nursing school in Evanston, Ill., tells of her new work. She writes:

"The bookends are very good looking and they are very useful to me. I feel as though I was just starting to school again. All the subjects we take are quite new to me, but very interesting, and I like it very much. It is nice to feel that you have a whole school 'backing you' and interested in what you are doing".

NEW Y. W. C. A.

OFFICERS AND CABINET

The annual election of the Y. W. C. A. was held on Wednesday, Feb. 29, and the following officers were elected: president, Mary E. Sawtell of Omaha, Neb., vice-president, Abigail Holmes of St. Louis, Mo., secretary, Dorothy Jane Fogwell of Decatur, Ill., treasurer, Dorothy Johnson of Michigan City, Ind.

The new officers and the old officers met recently with the faculty advisers to elect the new Cabinet members. The new members are: social chairman, Hortense Bass of Ft. Smith, Ark., publicity chairman, Jean Whitney of Omaha, Neb., social service chairman, Betty Foster of Arvada, Colo., music chairman, Margaret Nicholls of Wichita, Kan., international relation chairman, Estelle Bradford of Columbia, Mo.

The old officers served the Y. W. well and faithfully, and are to be congratulated. The new officers and cabinet have caught up the spirit and are introducing some interesting new movements.

LINDENWOOD ROMANCE

The wedding announcement of Miss Mary Elizabeth Patterson and Mr. Wesley Francis Shipton appeared in the last issue of the Bulletin. In the meantime an interesting letter has come from Miss Janet Stine, who writes:

"I have just been to Dallas, Texas, to take part in the wedding of Mary Patterson (1920) and Wesley F. Shipton of Minneapolis and Mirando City, Texas—a most interesting romance and the culmination of a Lindenwood friendship. Mr. Shipton is a fraternity brother of Kendall McClure, Frances Titzell's husband, while Titzell and Mary were Domestic Science partners at Lindenwood. Gladys Carnahan and her husband, Jack Crandall, were included in the wedding festivities. Mr. and Mrs. Shipton will make their home in Mirando City, Texas, near Laredo."

BETROTHALS

Miss Barbara Eschbach, head of Lindenwood's Physical Education Department, has announced her engagement to Mr. Clifford Crampton Hakes, of Muscatine, Iowa. The wedding will take place in the early summer at the residence of Miss Eschbach's sister, Mrs. George Newton of Muscatine.

During the three years that Miss Eschbach has taught at Lindenwood she has done much to develop the work in the Physical Education Department. Tennis, golf, hockey, basketball, swimming, baseball, dancing and track have become more and more popular under her leadership. Miss Eschbach has also taken charge of the dancing for May Day, and for the annual Musical Comedy given by the Athletic Association.

The picture of Miss Eva Marie Fleming appeared in the Globe-Democrat on Sunday, Feb. 19, accompanied by the following article:

"Announcement was made yesterday at a luncheon given in the Cahokia Room of the Broadview Hotel, East St. Louis, by Miss Kathleen Fleming, of the betrothal of her sister, Miss Eva Marie Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fleming, Jerseyville, Ill., to Dr. James J. Donahue, only son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Donahue, East St. Louis.

Clever place cards in pink and white told the 'latest news'. The table flowers were pink roses. Tall pink candles gave brightness to the room. Bridge followed the luncheon."

Both Eva Marie and Kathleen are Lindenwood graduates. Eva Marie, who took her B. S. in 1922, entered in 1918, and Kathleen attended from 1919-23, also graduating with a B. S.

At a bridge party given on the afternoon of December 9, 1927, Mrs. Sherman H. Kleinschmidt, of Webster Park, made formal announcement of the engagement of her daughter, Eleanor Dorothea, (Lindenwood 1923-25) to Mr. Joseph Eagleton Burger, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burger of Irvington, N. J. The guests included 26 of Miss Kleinschmidt's intimate friends.

Mrs. William Jackson and Miss Florence Fox, of Atchinson, Kan., gave a luncheon recently at which they announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Mary Alexina Fox, a former Lindenwood student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Fox, of Atchinson, to Mr. Dikran C. Milton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Seropyan of 4402 McPherson Ave. Mr. Milton is an attorney, with offices in the Bank of Commerce Building. The wedding will take place in Atchinson in June.

APPRECIATION

Friends of Miss Dorothy Masters, of Independence, Kansas, will be glad to know that she is recovering from her recent illness as rapidly as could be expected. Her mother, Mrs. J. N. Masters, writes that her stay at Lindenwood was very pleasant, and she wishes to express her appreciation for the courtesy and kindness shown her during her visit. She concludes:

"Mr. Masters and I both feel that Dorothy had the very best care and medical treatment that is possible to find, and her complete restoration to health is only a question of time now."

Pauline Davis, one of Lindenwood's Centennial graduates, is teaching French in her home town, Nowata, Oklahoma, but we understand that the old ties are strong and that Pauline is homesick to come back to Lindenwood. Last year Pauline won a Scholarship which admitted her to Middlebury College in Middlebury, Vt., and she spent a wonderful summer making use of her Scholarship there. This is a French School, and the students are required to speak French at all times, or are not permitted to remain, but we have already said that Pauline spent the summer.

Some of Our Business Women

Some of the former students who were trained in the Business Department, have answered the call of "the useful life", and are now holding responsible positions.

Kathryn Cowles, of Independence, Kansas (Lindenwood 1925-26), is Deputy Clerk of the District Court of Coffeyville, Kansas. Miss Cowles has her office all to herself, and is completely satisfied.

Louise Moffett, of Webster Groves, Mo., one of last year's students, is now the assistant bookkeeper of the Young Woman's Christian Association of St. Louis. She, too, is quite satisfied with her work.

Miriam Schwarz, who took a Business certificate in 1922, is enjoying teaching Commercial subjects at the Richmond, Mo. High School. She has a Bookkeeping class of 31 students.

Catherine Joslyn, of Lebanon, Mo., of last year's Sophomore class, is a Bookkeeper in Lebanon.

Katherine Lett (Lindenwood (1924-26), is teaching Civil Service in one of the Indiana schools.

Dolly Newbern, of Marianna, Ark., also one of last year's students, is working in an Insurance office in Marianna.

Evelyn Manchester, of Jefferson City, Mo., another of last year's students, is filling the position of private secretary for Dr. Enloe of Jefferson City.

Alpha Psi Omega Pledges

The following five girls have been selected by Alpha Psi Omega as new pledges: Martha Fagg of Detroit, Mich., Ruth Bullion of Little Rock, Ark., Marcia Wallace of Webb City, Mo., Marjorie Smith of Siloam Springs, Ark., and Margaret Keesor of Wheeling, West Va.

Alpha Psi Omega is sponsoring the play "Adam and Eva" which is to be presented soon after the Easter vacation.

Washington Birthday Party

Faculty, students, and other guests enjoyed the hospitality of the upperclassmen, who were hostesses at a Washington's Birthday party on Friday night, February 24. The Seniors supplied punch and patriotic favors for souvenirs, the Juniors entertained with a pantomime, and the Sophomores took charge of the decorations. The Gym was very appropriately bedecked with red, white, and blue crepe paper.

During the Grand March attractive little red, white and blue crepe paper dolls, which were soon swinging from little fingers, were given to the guests. The colonial pantomime with which the Juniors entertained, was the feature of the evening. The story was read by Helen Baker, and acted by Margaret Fagg, Pauline Shearer and Ruth Bullion.

CAMPUS VISITORS

Former students are always glad to come back, and girls on the campus are always equally glad to have them come. Two of last year's Freshmen stopped for short visits recently. Evelyn Manchester, of Jefferson City, Mo., vice-president of last year's Freshman class, stopped for a short while on Tuesday, Feb. 28, and a little later another of last year's freshmen, Anna Lide Adams, who is now Anna Lide Davis, drove in with her husband.

MRS. SIBLEY'S NIECE DIES

Lindenwood was indeed sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Henry Kloss of Milwaukee, a niece of Mary Easton Sibley, founder of Lindenwood. Mrs. Kloss, who was a member of a pioneer St. Louis family, and a frequent visitor in St. Louis during her youth, was Miss Mary Easton, grand-daughter of Rufus Easton, first postmaster of St. Louis, after whom Easton Avenue is named. Mrs. Kloss is survived by her daughter, Mary Easton Kloss and her husband.

BIRTHS

A cradle folder Announcing Good News, the birth of Terry Stephen on Feb. 8, has been received from Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Kohlbry, of St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Kohlbry was formerly Frances Elizabeth Rutherford, who attended Lindenwood in 1921-22.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence George Watkins, of Greenfield, Mo., have sent an announcement of the birth of Lawrence George Watkins 2d, on February 15. Mrs. Watkins was formerly Miss Freda V. Guenther, of Greenfield, Mo.

MISSOURI GLEE CLUB AT LINDENWOOD

On the evening that the members of the Glee Club of the University of Missouri gave a concert at St. Charles High School they were the guests of Lindenwood at dinner.

The dinner was delicious and the dessert was very appropriate. Little black notes of music decorated bricks of ice-cream. Shortly before dinner was over, Professor Wall, the director of the Glee Club, made a brief informal talk. Following this, the members of the Glee Club sang two songs. The first was the national competition song, and the second was the University of Missouri Alma Mater written by Professor Quarles, now dean of the School of Fine Arts at Missouri, formerly a member of the Lindenwood faculty.

After dinner the "College Ramblers" played for a dance in the gym. Too soon it was time to depart for the concert. Many of the girls attended the concert and enjoyed it very much.
