NOTE

HAY FEVER was first produced at the Ambassadors Theatre, London on June 6, 1925. The first New York production was at the Maxine Elliott Theatre on October 5, 1925, starring Laura Hope Crews and Gavin Muir.

This is the third production of HAY FEVER to be presented at Lindenwood. It was produced in proscenium staging in 1947 and on April 29, 1955.

We take pleasure in presenting Mr. Vernon Black, director of the dramatics program at the St. Charles High School, and Speech Correctionist for the St. Charles district.

This play is presented by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc., New York.
