

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

DEPARTMENT OF SPEECH

Presents

KIND LADY

by EDWARD CHODOROV

Dramatized from HUGH WALPOLE'S STORY

THE SILVER MASK

Directed by ROBERT DOUGLAS HUME

PRODUCED BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH SAMUEL FRENCH, NEW YORK

ROEMER AUDITORIUM

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

SAINT CHARLES, MISSOURI

FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 30, 1956

8:00 O'CLOCK

CAST

(as they appear)

Miss Foster	YVONNE LINSIN
A Servant.....	SUELLEN PURDUE
Mary Herries	JULIE ORR
Lucy Weston	MARILYN DE BEER
Rose.....	DIANE FLOYD
Phyllis Glenning.....	CONSTANCE JEAN SUTTON
Peter Santard.....	DON GRIMES
Henry Abbott	JIM HODGES
Ada	KAY WESTWOOD
The Doctor	WALTER McCORMICK
Mr. Edwards.....	BOBBY GHORMLEY
Mrs. Edwards.....	PHYLLIS MARK
Aggie	ANN ZOTOS
M. Gustav Rosenberg.....	BURTON E. MEISEL

SCENE: Living room of Mary Herries' home, Montague Square, London.

TIME: About twenty years ago.

PROLOGUE. A rainy afternoon in spring.

ACT I Scene 1. Late Christmas Eve, several years previously.
 Scene 2. After dinner, the following January.

ACT II An afternoon later in January.

ACT III An afternoon the following summer.

EPILOGUE. Same as the prologue.

There will be five-minute intermissions between Acts I and II.

STAFF

Director	ROBERT DOUGLAS HUME
Stage Manager.....	STEPHANIE FANTLE
Assistant Stage Manager.....	KATHRYN BOGIE
Electrician.....	FEROL FINCH
Assistant Electricians.....	PAULA BIRD BETTY OWENS JUDY ROBINSON
Make-up Manager.....	KAY WESTWOOD
House Manager.....	SHIRLEY HOLUB
Ushers.....	SUSAN JEWELL KAREN KLABAU SYLVIA PICKELL SARA STEIN BITSY THOMAS

NOTE

KIND LADY was first presented at the Booth Theatre, New York, on April 23, 1935. Grace George and Henry Daniell played the leading roles.

A former production at Lindenwood College, directed by Miss Juliet McCrory, was presented on March 23, 1945.

In this production, we are happy to introduce our three male scholarship students in theatre – Bobby Ghormley, Don Grimes, and Jim Hodges.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Appreciative thanks to Mr. Burton E. Meisel, director of drama at St. Charles High School, and to Walter McCormick, St. Charles High School senior, for playing roles in this production.

Assistance in decoration by Miss Judy Glover, instructor in art.

Design, construction, and decoration by Don Grimes and Jim Hodges, students in Stagecraft (Speech 251).

Technical assistance by Mr. Charles Bushnell and staff.