Dr. Joseph Zlatic Named Employee of the Month for March

Assistant Professor and Chair of Lindenwood Belleville's Criminal Justice Department, Dr. Joe Zlatic has been selected as the Employee of the Month for March.

Zlatic joined the Belleville campus faculty in August 2013, and quickly earned the respect of his colleagues and students as a professor whose genuine care and approachability are second to none. Read more

Women's Lacrosse Hosts Oklahoma Baptist on Senior Day

Lindenwood fans have just two opportunities left to catch one of the top teams in school history at home. The Lady Lions lacrosse team is just three games away from a perfect regular season, and the first game in that stretch is Saturday at 1 p.m. against Oklahoma Baptist. Lindenwood will be celebrating nine seniors before the contest, and then will look to move to 17-0 on the year against the Bison.

Admission to the contest is free for all Lindenwood faculty and staff.

Ryan Hamm Named 30-Under-30 Award Winner

Lindenwood men's basketball assistant coach Ryan Hamm was honored today by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). The NABC named Hamm an Under Armour 30-under-30 honoree, which recognizes a group of up and coming young coaches in men's college basketball. Read more

Reminder: The Faculty Survey of Student Engagement (FSSE) is Now Open for Responses

All faculty who have not completed the FSSE survey should have received a reminder from the email address fsse@fsse.org, signed by Thomas F. Nelson Laird, Associate Professor from Indiana University. The subject line of the email was "Lindenwood Survey of Student Engagement". This invitation and the link therein are legitimate and should not be regarded as spam or phishing. Read more
