~ MEDIA ALERT~

Army Apache Helicopter to Land in Lindenwood Stadium

St. Charles, Mo. – The Lindenwood University Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) is sponsoring the display of an AH-64 Apache Attack Helicopter inside the school's Harlen C. Hunter Stadium on Wednesday, April 22. The helicopter will land on the athletic field at 10 a.m. and depart at 3 p.m.

First Lieutenant Adrienne Moore, senior ROTC instructor and the first female in the history of the Missouri National Guard to fly an Apache helicopter, will pilot the aircraft. She and a former Apache combat pilot will be on-hand to discuss the aircraft and the ROTC program with students and visitors.

Lindenwood University, founded in 1827, is an independent liberal arts university offering 84 undergraduate degree programs and 37 graduate programs in diverse areas of study in traditional and accelerated formats.

Lindenwood operates a residential campus in historic St. Charles, as well as 10 extension sites throughout the St. Louis Metropolitan area.
