Lindenwood University-Belleville Schedules Summer Overnight Visits

Lindenwood University-Belleville has scheduled two overnight visits for prospective students.

"We're looking forward to hosting high school juniors and seniors so they can experience campus life and see what it's like to be a Lynx," said Dean of Admissions Reeta Piirala-Skoglund.

The overnights are scheduled for Friday, June 23 and Friday, July 28. Check-in is at 5 p.m. with check-out being at noon the following day. There is no cost to attend this event.

During the visit, students will get a chance to spend the night in one of the residence halls, meet current students, talk with faculty and attend mock classes, and receive information on the admission and financial aid processes.

To RSVP, call 618-239-6242.

In Showcase, Humanities Students Show off What They've Learned

As the school year rapidly comes to a close, Lindenwood University-Belleville students had a chance Thursday, April 27, to share with others some of the exciting things they've learned.

Students from the Humanities Division presented highlights of their work in a public showcase held in the classrooms and hallways of the West Wing. Visitors walked from room to room to see poetry readings, short films, graphic artwork, script recitals, and many other forms of art. Read more
