Vincent Meninno Named New Lynx Men's Basketball Coach

The Lindenwood University-Belleville Athletic Department and Athletic Director Ryan Kaiser are pleased to announce Vincent Meninno as the Lynx Men's Basketball Coach.

"After careful review of over 170 applications, we believe we've found the right guy in Vincent Meninno," stated Kaiser. "Vincent is a young professional in the basketball world that has tremendous upside potential and we're excited what he can bring to Lynx Nation. Can't wait for him to hit the ground running." Read more

Lindenwood University-Belleville Announces Summer Athletic Camps

Lindenwood University-Belleville's Athletic Department is happy to announce its summer camp lineup.

The Lindenwood University-Belleville women's basketball team will host an Elite Basketball Camp for girls entering grades 11-12 from June 19-21. During this camp, athletes will have time with coaches and players to develop advanced skills through drills and games.

Overnight campers will be provided with breakfast, lunch, and dinner along with a t-shirt, for $200 per athlete. Campers who choose not to stay overnight will receive a t-shirt and be served lunch for $100 per athlete. The camp will run from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. daily. Those interested in the camp can register by contacting Assistant Coach Shelby Kohrmann at skohrmann@lindenwood.edu or 618-239-6114. Read about more camps offered here

In an earlier HLC Fact of the Week, it was noted that HLC articulates a number of guiding values. One of those guiding values addresses diversity. But it is important to note that diversity is also addressed in the HLC Criteria for Accreditation. Here is a complete listing of the HLC language pertinent to diversity: Read more

Make a Difference by Cleaning Out Your Closet

Many Lindenwood graduates don't own a suit to wear to an interview. The Offices of Career Development and Alumni Relations are collecting clean, new or gently used professional suits to help those in need of interview attire. For information on Suits for Success, contact Cara Gitchos at cgitchos@lindenwood.edu.
