Who's going to be in Colorado?

Dr. and Mrs. Roemer are planning a Lindenwood party at the Brown Palace Hotel, Denver, Monday, July 30.

If you are going to be near Denver, or know any former Lindenwood girl or member of the faculty who will be in Colorado at this time, send her name with her Colorado address to the Dean's secretary, St. Charles, Missouri.

It will be necessary for the name and address to reach the office by July 20 in order that information may be mailed which contains the exact hour of the meeting.

OUR MUSIC DEPARTMENT

John Thomas, director of music and teacher of piano, graduated from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music with a B. M. degree and an Artist Diploma with distinction. Mr.

Thomas' playing is impressive, full of conviction and vigor. He is also a composer of decided promise and has played a number of his own compositions in his recitals at the college, winning the applause of everyone.

Miss Ariel Gross also teacher of piano, received her degree of Master of Music at the Kroeger School of Music and is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music. Miss Gross has been very successful in her work at Lindenwood. Her success is due to her thoroughness and great interest in her work as well as her talent. She has a natural gift for piano playing and the qualifications of an excellent teacher.

Miss Lucile Hatch has had splendid training in Cincinnati and New York as well as successful teaching and recital experience. She has received an Artist Diploma from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and has studied with famous musicians both at home and abroad.

Miss Katherine Gaines, teacher of piano and theory of music, is a teacher of proven ability. Miss Gaines' lectures on the opera, Indian and Folk music are most interesting. She is a graduate of the Chicago Musical College and the Royal Conservatory, Leipzig. Miss Gaines has done much to forward the interest in music history and appreciation.

Miss Paula Postel teaches pipe organ and theory of music. Miss Postel also has charge of the choir. She is a graduate of the Columbia School of Music and American Conservatory. Her interest and thoroughness make her a splendid teacher.

Miss Frances E. Oldfield, in her six years at Lindenwood, has had exceptional results in the voice department. Her splendid training both at home and abroad and her pleasing personality make this a natural result. She has studied under James Sauvage, Isadore Luckstone, George Henschel, Jeane de Reszke, and Newflower.

Miss Elizabeth Farmer, teacher of voice, has studied both in Germany and in America under some of the foremost artists—Mme. Etta Edwards, Oscar Sea-gle, and Alfred Williams. She has also had several years' experience in opera and concert work. Miss Farmer's great interest in her work makes her very sympathetic and painstaking with her pupils.

Lindenwood takes great pride in having Miss Agnes Gray, a native of St. Louis, at the head of the violin department. Her experience both as teacher and artist has brought a great reputation to the conservatory. Miss Gray is a violinist of rare accomplishment. She teaches not only violin but all stringed instruments. She also has charge of orchestra.

Miss Charlotte Ruth Craig comes to us this year to have charge of the public school music course. Miss Craig is a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and has studied at Ann Arbor, and at Chicago. She comes to us very highly recommended as to her teaching ability.

With a corp of teachers having such splendid training and experience the coming year should be the best in the history of the college. In addition to these advantages in the college, the music center of St. Louis is very close and the girls will have an opportunity to attend the concerts of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, The Peoples Concert, Grand Opera, and concerts by special artists.

THE DEPARTMENT OF ORATORY

Miss Myrrl Rodney comes to us to take the place as head of the oratory department for next year.

Miss Rodney is a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory, Boston, and has had a great deal of experience in teaching. She comes to us very highly recommended from her former positions. She has taught in the Elizabeth Peabody House, Boston, has been an assistant in the voice department of the Emerson School of Oratory and has also taught in the Dickinson Institute, Abilene, Kansas.

The work in the oratory department is both practical and broadly cultural. A thorough foundation is given to those who desire to specialize in oratory, and various opportunities are afforded to students enrolled in other departments.

Many of the girls find a great deal of profit and pleasure in taking private lessons. These lessons are carefully adapted to the needs of the individual student.

"Molly"

Interpretative Reading, Dramatic Reading, Pantomime, Story-Telling, and

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Original Oratory are some of the most interesting courses.

Without a doubt the most popular thing about the oratory department is the clever and worth while plays they give from time to time. During this last year a number of these plays were given, and were enjoyed by the entire student body. The climax of the year's work came on the night of May Day when Allan L. Martin's three act play, "Smilin' Through" was given on the campus. It was a production that was charming and beautiful.

THE ART DEPARTMENT

Miss Alice Linnemann is the very competent head of the art department. Miss Linnemann is a graduate of Lindenwood and has studied extensively at the Chicago Art Institute, University of Missouri, People's University, University City; Columbia University, University of California. She has also had private lessons under Mrs. Kathryn Cherry, St. Louis; and Professor Forbes, Rome, as well as having traveled in Europe and visited many of the famous galleries.

The art courses of Lindenwood are planned to develop the capacity and the inclination to enjoy the aesthetic aspects of nature—to appreciate excellence in the design of man's creation; to appreciate beauty in all things and to develop the ability to express ideas freely and graphically by giving thorough knowledge in the principles of art as applied to all special work.

The college library contains many splendid reference books on art and an excellent lantern and slides are used in illustrated lectures given in the various courses.

The art rooms on the third floor of Roemer hall are an ideal place in which to work. The many large windows look out over miles of lovely scenery and on a clear day it is possible to see, ten miles away, where the Missouri and the Mississippi meet.

Art Exhibit Room

The girls who have been in Miss Linnemann's private art classes in china painting, batik, and tied and dyed work are more than enthusiastic about their accomplishments. The girls are allowed to make anything that they wish, and their results this year, especially in tied and dyed work, have been very satisfactory.

There is also the superior advantages afforded by visits to the St. Louis Museum of Fine Arts and exhibitions of work by national and foreign artists. This advantage cannot be too strongly emphasized, for in no other way can appreciation be developed as by constant contact with the work of really great artists.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of Lindenwood College was held at the College on Tuesday, June 19, beginning at ten A. M. The following members of the Board were present: President, Dr. John W. MacIvor of St. Louis; Vice-President, Dr. D. M. Skilling of Webster Groves; Secretary, George B. Cummings of St. Louis; together with Dr. George P. Baity of Kansas City, Thomas H. Cobbs, John T. Garrett, Robert Ranken of St. Louis, and Dr. B. K. Stumberg and Dr. John L. Roemer of St. Charles.

Reports were heard from the various departments of the school and appropriations made for the coming year. During the school year there was an enrollment of 424 students. This included the extension course that was given during the year to the teachers and others of St. Charles who were unable to avail themselves of the privilege of day classes. The Faculty Committee reported that they had secured teachers for the places made vacant by those who were leaving. The suggestion was approved that only teachers with the M. A. degree would be eligible for professorships, and the heads of departments must have the degree of Ph. D. Instructors would not be required to have the advanced degree beyond that of A. B. or B. S.

Steps were taken looking toward the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the school, which will take place in May, 1927. Good reports were heard from the Alumnae in regard to the Mary Easton Sibley Scholarship Fund. If the way be clear a Field Secretary may be appointed.

The Buildings and Grounds Committee presented the necessary improvements that are to be made on the campus and also recommended that the eight feet of ground wanted by the State for the State Highway should be given. This was adopted. Report was made that the high cost of building had prevented the erection of the proposed teachers' dormitory. It was also the opinion of the Board that the northern boundary of the College should be Watson Street and that no property north of that be acquired. Liberal appropriation was made for the golf course and athletic field. The Board of Directors instructed the President of the College to see that all recreational games, such as golf, tennis, etc., should be kept within the hours of regulation during the week, and that under no condition would Sunday games be permitted.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Dr. John W. MacIvor; Vice-President, Dr. D. M. Skilling; Secretary, George B. Cummings. The following committees were appointed: Executive, Dr. John W. MacIvor, Dr. D. M. Skilling, Robert Ranken, George B. Cummings, Thomas H. Cobbs, George W. Sutherland, Dr. J. L. Roemer. Faculty, Dr. J. L. Roemer, Dr. J. W. MacIvor, Dr. Emmett P. North, Dr. S. C. Palmer, John T. Garrett. Buildings and Grounds, Robert Ranken, Dr. B. K. Stumberg, Dr. J. L. Roemer. Finance,

WHERE THEY ARE AND WHAT THEY ARE DOING

Catherine Yount has returned to her home in Cape Girardeau, Mo., after a several weeks' visit in Fulton, Mo., with her friend Margaret Ferguson. Later in the summer Catherine plans to go to Yellowstone Park with Miss Templin and Grace Chandler.

Dorothy Gee writes from the East, where she is spending the summer, that she will be back at Lindenwood September 12, ready for another winter's work.

Gladys Sullivan is sending us her younger sister. We hope that she will add as much to Lindenwood as Gladys has.

Page Wright didn't get enough studying done to suit her this last winter and is now taking some work at Washington University. Page always was a hard worker.

Margaret McNee will be back with us next year after having spent a delightful summer in Long Beach, California.

"Bartie" and "Adle" both made a visit to the famous city of Jerseyville, Ill. before going to their homes.

Fannie Virginia Bowers, sister of Eloise and Marguerite, will be among our Lindenwood family next year. We are always glad to welcome the sisters.

Janet Robinson is attending Chicago University this summer.

Mary Louise Stevison spent several weeks visiting Margaret Kyger, Winfield, Kansas.

Harriet Gum who attended Lindenwood year before last has enrolled for next year. She is bringing her younger sister with her, also. We will be mighty glad to have Harriet with us again.

Lillian Trapp visited Keo Richards in Hutchinson, Kansas for several days.

Mrs. Arthur Farnsworth (Vera Hinkle) '19, is sending us her younger sister, Lillian. Lillian is the daughter of Governor Hinkle of New Mexico.

Jessie Schaper writes that she will return in the fall ready for work and play.

Virginia Liles, sister of Helen Liles, has signed up.

Mary Priscilla and Helen Calder are at Camp Minne-Wonka Lodge, Three Lakes, Wisconsin. Helen has a position as dramatic art councilor and Mary Priscilla has charge of the religious education and is assistant physical education instructor.

Katherine Tinsman writes "It hardly seems possible that another year is over and that next year will be my last at Lindenwood. It seems only a short while ago that I enrolled as a freshman. I have enjoyed every minute of my time at Lindenwood and feel that I have gotten a great deal out of my work and life there.

I am enclosing the acceptance of the scholarship and am very proud to have received it. I shall try to the best of my ability to live up to the responsibilities that it brings."

Elinor Montgomery is spending the summer in the East getting rested up for another winter's work.

Theo Myer, after a short visit in St. Louis, has gone to summer camp in Wisconsin.

If the number of girls from one family who attend the same college is any recommendation for the college—and it surely ought to be—we should feel very highly gratified this year. In addition to the ones already mentioned there are younger sisters of Juanice Scoggin, Elizabeth Arveson, Mildred Kleinschmidt, and Grace Stumpe enrolled. This is the third girl from the Stumpe family for before Grace was here there was Ella Ida Stumpe (Mrs. Alvin C. Nieberg).

Elizabeth Miltenberger is attending summer school at Cape Girardeau, Mo.

DEPARTMENTAL GIFTS

It has always been the custom for the different departments and clubs to make gifts to the college at the close of the year. This year we were more than fortunate in the number and choice of the gifts received.

The Commercial Club gave to their department a sectional bookcase containing six books pertaining to their line of work. The Club hopes that in the years to follow that they will be able to add additional copies until a complete library is made.

From the proceeds of the French play, Le Cercle Francais purchased a set of song books, "Les Chants de France," to be used in their meetings.

The Spanish Club hung a large picture of the Cathedral of Sevilla in the Spanish recitation room.

One hundred dollars was added to the Student Loan Fund by the Euthenics Club. They also spent another hundred in buying dishes, linen, and pictures for the model apartment.

From time to time during the year the journalism department added books to the library until by the end of the year their gift amounted to about one hundred volumes.

A lovely picture of the Church of St. Francis Assisi, the gift of the academy class has been hung in Mrs. Roemer's outer office.

Due to the gift of a great number of books pertaining to the life and work of Shakespeare, by the Shakespeare Club, we now have one of the most complete Shakespearian libraries in this part of the country.

ALUMNAE NOTES

"I read in the Bulletin of the broadcasting from Jefferson City," writes "Buzz" Wiseman, '20-'21. "We have a radio and I would appreciate it very much if you would notify me when you are there again, so that we can 'listen in'. I would just love to hear the girls in their original songs. I am always glad to get the Bulletin and to hear any news of Lindenwood."

Mrs. Matt T. Kauman (Franc Coleman) '20-'21, writes, "I want to thank you for the Bulletin which comes every month to help me remember one of the happiest years of my life. With all the other Lindenwood Girls of Yesterday, I too, hope to return some day and see again the scenes I love so well."

"I very much regret that I cannot be at the commencement program this year," says Mrs. Guy N. St. Clair (Leone Shaffer) '06. "I often think of the pleasant visit I had with you last year. The Chicago club sends greetings and we wish we might all be there, but we have a splendid representative in Mrs. Seymour. We are looking forward to hearing all about Lindenwood at our June meeting."

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

"Several times I thought I would write and thank you for my little gift calendar," writes Mrs. E. B. Gay (Anne Draver) '20-'21. "It is lovely. I also wish to thank you for sending the Bulletin so regularly. Every little bit of it interests me exceedingly, especially the news of my old school mates who are scattered about the country."

"As I read the Bulletin today," writes Mrs. John B. Kerr (Dollie Hamilton Hanken), "I felt so proud of Lindenwood and her progress. I hope some day soon to be able to come back for a visit."

We are in receipt of a very interesting letter from Mrs. Wallace J. Edgar (Anna Chicester) '71-'72 who was later, in '91-'92, the teacher of physical culture and hygiene. Mrs. Edgar was 73 years old her last birthday—making her one of our oldest alumnae. For many years she was a resident of St. Louis and a member of Dr. Niccolls' church.

The "Girls of Yesterday" in the San Francisco Lindenwood club sent greetings and congratulations to the "Girls of Today" who graduated.

"I want to thank you for the pleasant visit I had at Lindenwood. I enjoyed every minute of it," writes Mrs. Carl J. Oates (Elsie Page) '16-'17. "The effect of a few days stay in such a school gives me a new college spirit. I am anxious to tell all of the members of our club of the many courtesies shown us. They will all want to enjoy a visit, I am sure."

Mrs. C. E. Thomas (Mary Elizabeth Bruce) '92, writes, "I must tell you what a delightful treat was mine when you entertained the student Alumnae and the mothers of the Lindenwood girls at the Roubidoux Hotel, St. Joseph, with Miss Linnemann acting as hostess. The years rolled away as if by magic and I was a girl again as we all are when with Lindenwood folk."

The "Girls of Yesterday" and "Day Before Yesterday" thoroughly approved of the "Girls of Today." For beauty, courtesy, and poise, they cannot be equalled, I am sure.

One delightful feature of the luncheon was the presence of the mothers of our Lindenwood girls and we are rejoicing that they are to be associate members of our club.

"In four years my daughter Elizabeth will be a Lindenwood girl and it a great joy to me that she will be in such good hands when she leaves home for college."

Eva Fleming, '22, is attending summer school at Boulder, Colorado.

Ethel Decker, '19-'21, who has been the assistant in the County Agriculture Office, Greeley, Colorado, writes that she plans to enter the Colorado State Teacher's College in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seymour and family, Chicago, have gone to their summer home in Bay View, Michigan.

"Just last night I returned from my visit to St. Louis and vicinity, and it is the 'vicinity' part of my trip which is standing out in my mind," writes Elizabeth McCoy Barshfield '11-'15. "I shall never forget the wonderful time that I had at Lindenwood. It makes my chest fairly swell with pride to know that I once attended a school like Lindenwood, and I am especially happy to know that I was welcome upon my return for a visit. I have always been strong for Lindenwood, you know, but now I am just a little stronger for her—if such a thing is possible. I intend to help in every way that I can to boost it along, so when you need any help in Kansas City please call on me.”

Mrs. Paul Thomas, (Carra Weber), '85, writes, “Thank you so much for the April Bulletin. You have no idea how many happy minutes I spent in reading it and noting the wonderful strides made by our Alma Mater. I am glad to see that ‘our girls’ have established the Mary Easton Sibley Scholarship Fund, and I shall be happy to do my small share.”

Dorothy English '22, writes to Miss Linnemann telling of a prize she won in a poster contest. “I am feeling rather proud of myself, especially since I saw some of the other posters entered with mine. I am still wondering how I got the prize.”

“I want to thank you for the Lindenwood Bulletin which I have been receiving. I adore getting them and read every one from cover to cover,” writes Ione Epstein Sandperl. “My year at Lindenwood was such a happy one that I hope my small Betty (age three) will choose Lindenwood when she grows up. I also have a son about three months old.”

“I hardly think that it is necessary for me to tell you that I enjoyed every minute of my visit to Lindenwood during Commencement” writes Agnes Adams, '12. “It is always a joy to return to the dear old school and especially so when one is so graciously treated. Again many thanks for all your kindness.”

CAMPUS NOTES

Dr. Roemer was the speaker at the anniversary celebration of the Y. M. C. A. in Carbondale, Ill., Sunday, June 17.

“Ninety-second Commencement Exercises and May Day Festival” was the title of the 480 foot film featuring these events at Lindenwood, which was shown at the New Grand Central theatre in St. Louis soon after the close of school.

Miss Lucinda Templin is in Columbia, Mo. doing research work for her Ph. D. thesis. Miss Templin has completed the residence work in New York City toward this degree at Columbia University.

Mrs. Effie Roberts and daughter Roberta (Mrs. I. A. Sturgis), '16, and little granddaughter spent a few days at the college.

A gasoline lawn mower is one of new features of the college. Cutting grass is no longer mere drudgery, but a pleasure. And whether they admit it or not, all of the men on the place love to “play” with the new mower.

Dr. Roemer spoke on the subject, “The Presbyterian Woman of tomorrow,” at the Lindenwood Presbyterian Church in Kansas City, June 24. He was joined there by Mrs. Roemer and they went to Colorado where they will spend the month of July. Most of their time will probably be spent in Manitou.

Mrs. Arthur Lee Nims (Edwina Peckham), '16-'18, Oklahoma City, spent the afternoon at the college visiting friends and looking over the improvements.

Miss Cora Walter, dietitian, is spending her vacation touring the west. Later in the summer she will make a boat trip to Alaska.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Mildred Henderson, '17-'18, Cecile Roetzel, '17, and Mildred Roetzel, '16-'18, spent the day at the college.

The Commencement exercises of the St. Charles High School were held in Roemer auditorium, June 15. Dr. Henry H. Forsythe, Kingshighway Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, addressed the class. Out of the fifteen girls in the class, four have already signed up to attend Lindenwood next year.

Dr. and Mrs. Roemer attended the wedding of Margaret Ogle to Thomas A. Cleveland, St. Louis, June 16. Dr. Roemer performed the marriage ceremony.

Wilma Gladish, '19-'20, Jackson, Mo., spent the afternoon at the college looking over the grounds and noting the improvements.

New heating plants are being installed in both Margaret and Eastlick halls.

CLUB NOTES

CHICAGO

Before the month of June is over the Chicago Lindenwood Club will have had two meetings. We had a very happy meeting at the home of our president, Mrs. Guy St. Clair in Glencoe. The day being bright, there were a great many present. Many of us met in the "Loop" and enjoyed together the ride to the North Shore suburb.

The air was delightfully fresh, the shrubbery green, and the lilacs and tulips gorgeous. All of this was especially refreshing to those who live in city apartments.

A beautifully appointed luncheon was served on small tables. Yellow ribbon bows on tiny white baskets of spring flowers carried out the club colors.

Mrs. W. W. Seymour entertained us with a talk of her recent visit to her Alma Mater. The writer sat enraptured for last year after an absence of over twenty years, she returned to Lindenwood and lived again the thrills of enjoyment and the touch of pathos of the girls during the last days of the year centered about the excitement of Commencement.

Miss Margaret Seymour, daughter of Mrs. W. W. Seymour, gave her experiences as a student and as a member of the faculty.

Mrs. J. W. Zaring played a few piano solos.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. George B. Lown, president; Mrs. H. C. Dinkmeyer, vice-president; Mrs. W. O. Davis, secretary;

Mrs. E. R. Gentry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. Flanagan, treasurer.

Delegates were appointed to different departments of the 2nd district I. F. W. C. They are as follows: art, Mrs. E. R. Gentry; music, Mrs. Sumpter Calvert; literature, Mrs. Charles Perterson.

At the end of the business meeting we added a generous contribution to our Ex-servicemen Penny Loan Fund.

We were pleased to have as our guest Mrs. L. E. Crandall, now living in New Haven, Conn.

A pleasing variety was added to our meeting by having the "wee folk" with us.

Mary Jane Jenkins, Alden Joice, and John McKane all enjoyed playing in the spacious grounds with their hostess, Mary Helen St. Clair.

Ann Whyte Gentry,
Corresponding Secretary

ST. LOUIS

A large number of St. Louis women as well as the alumnae of the college, attended the bridge party and garden tea, given June 6, by the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club at the home of Leone C. Gale, for the benefit of the Mary Easton Sibley Scholarship Fund. Mrs. Arthur H. Gale is president of the Alumnae Association and the party was given at the home of her son.

This was one of the largest social entertainments given by the Alumnae Association this year. Refreshments were served and the club colors of white and yellow were used.
