My Dear Sir,

An apology is certainly due to you for my delay in acknowledging the receipt of your package by Doctor Simpson.

A great press of business has prevented me from giving to the subject of our business at Washington. Than calm investigation, which it merits. Twice write you again on that subject shortly after my arrival at home. I send you the enclosed bill for $5.00 also $2 in specie, 'tis all that I can now spare.

Yrs most sincerely

B. H. Reeves
