Sir,

I have this morning received you letter of the 26th ulto. On the 20th I addressed a letter to you with sundry enclosures which could not have reached you when your last was written, and to which I beg leave to refer you. Lest the originals may now be recovered I have caused copies to me made out and now enclose them.

The letters to which my conversation with General Gratiot referred was one dated the 6th October last enclosing copies of papers which have been wrongly directed to you in July previous at Detroit, a copy of which I now forward.

Very Respectfully

Yr. Obd. Sev.
