Lindenwood is sponsoring the 18th annual Karen for a Kause 5K and 1-mile walk Saturday, May 13, at Frontier Park in St. Charles.

LindenGiving, Destination Lindenwood, and Lions Living Well have partnered to sponsor this incredible Kause!

There still are 12 free registrations left for Lindenwood employees, so sign up to participate today! If you receive an error message at checkout after applying, it means the remaining slots have been filled.

However, you still can still register to participate under Lindenwood's Team: Lion Paws for a Kause! Please review the registration details document for everything you need to know about this hot pink opportunity!

Foundry Art Centre Volunteer Opportunity

LindenGiving is excited to announce another volunteer opportunity at Foundry Art Centre on Wednesday, May 24, from 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. Volunteers will roll up their sleeves to clean the 500-plus chairs the Foundry uses for various events.

The Foundry Art Centre raises awareness and appreciation of the arts throughout the region. The public's active participation continues to make the Foundry Art Centre successful in its mission to connect people with the Arts through Exhibitions, Studio Artists, Performances, and Education.

What a great way to show our support for this organization and its mission! Please join the "cleaning party" by registering here. Be sure to wear appropriate clothing.

Assessment Summit 2023: Moving From Awareness to Action: Examining Needs Assessment Results for Change

May 11, 9-11:30 a.m.

Young Hall and Online

Please join us for the 2023 Assessment Summit! Our focus this year will be taking data from needs assessment and campus climate surveys and insights gained through the academic year to inform our progress moving forward. Our main session centers on celebrating our assessment champions, analyzing focused data, and connecting data to the work of advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion at Lindenwood. Thank you for joining a morning full of conversations and ideation! A light breakfast will be served for those attending in person starting at 8:30 a.m.
