Q2 Council – Reimagined and Redefined

As the needs of the University evolve, we are adjusting the priorities of the Q2 Council. Q2 is not saying yes to everyone and giving all of our students A's. It's about giving the best experience and sometimes that includes developing intuitive processes for others to be self-sufficient. To this end, Q2 Champions are taking on the responsibility of developing a continuous feedback loop for University community members to be heard at the cabinet level when there is a people, place, or process problem for students or employees.

Do you see an opportunity for improved service? Submit your request to the Q2 Council and we will reach out to you with next steps necessary in bringing solutions to the cabinet for review.
