Lindenwood University Music Department Chairman Pens Second Book

St. Charles, Mo. — Joe Alsobrook, chairman of the Lindenwood University Music Department, has authored a book about music education titled Destinations 4K12 Music Educators. The book is his second to be published in less than eight years.

“Destinations presents a fresh perspective on standards-based music education and hallmarks of effective practice,” Alsobrook said. “I hope readers will find it to be both practical and inspirational.”

Alsobrook’s first book, Pathways: A Guide for Energizing and Enriching Band, Orchestra, and Choral Programs, is a GIA Publications, Inc., bestseller. His latest project took five years to complete.

Destinations 4K12 Music Educators is scheduled to be released in December, 2009, at the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago. Both of Alsobrook’s books will be available for purchase on-line at Amazon.com.

Lindenwood University, founded in 1827, is an independent liberal arts university offering 84 undergraduate degree programs and 37 graduate programs in diverse areas of study in traditional and accelerated formats.

Lindenwood operates a residential campus in historic St. Charles, as well as 10 extension sites throughout the St. Louis Metropolitan area.
