Common Sense Economics Influences Shark Tank Finalists in Prague

European leaders competed in Think Tank Shark Tank at the Europe Liberty Forum from May 25-26, in Prague, Czech Republic. The winner and one other of the three invited competitors used Common Sense Economics: What Everyone Should Know about Wealth and Prosperity, coauthored by Dr. Tawni Hunt Ferrarini of the Plaster College of Business and Entrepreneurship. Join us in celebrating Lindenwood University making a positive difference in the world today.

Accessibility Awareness: Asynchronous Training

Members of the Learning Experience Design Team have developed a self-paced accessibility training available through Canvas. Focusing on accessibility in your role at Lindenwood means we continue to foster a supportive community on campus that empowers students, promotes diversity, and enhances the campus experience for all. The training consists of four modules offering information and guidance developed from the Basic Course Accessibility Checklist at Lindenwood. Topics covered include: (1) Accessibility features that exist natively in Canvas; (2) Creating accessible documents; (3) Producing video and audio materials using Microsoft Stream that include captions and/or transcripts; and (4) Supplemental resources.

In order to participate in the course, please submit a ticket to the Help Desk to request access to the Accessibility Awareness Course on Canvas. All faculty and staff are encouraged to participate in the course.

Online

Phil Jackson's book, "Eleven Rings," provides valuable insights into leadership, teamwork, and the power of a shared vision. Jackson's coaching philosophy, which is grounded in Eastern philosophy, emphasizes the importance of mindfulness, self-awareness, and collaboration. In the book, Jackson describes his journey from a basketball player to one of the most successful coaches in NBA history, and how he learned to cultivate a winning mindset in his players. He emphasizes the importance of developing a shared vision and cultivating a sense of trust and respect among team members.

We invite you to join our book club. You will have the opportunity to explore these themes and learn from the experiences of one of the greatest coaches of all time. Through engaging discussions and shared insights, you will gain a deeper understanding of the principles that underpin successful teams, and how you can apply them to your own life. The club meets every other Wednesday from June 14 – July 26.
