Lindenwood Choirs, Orchestra, Jazz Band to Offer Fall Concerts

St. Charles, Mo.—Lindenwood University's choirs, orchestra and jazz band will offer their fall concerts at 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 16, 19 and 20, respectively, at the university's Bezemes Family Theater in the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts. Admission is free for all three concerts; the Scheidegger Center is located at 2300 West Clay Street, west of First Capitol Drive, in St. Charles.

LU Choirs Concert

Monday, November 16, 2009

7:30 p.m.

The LU choirs will perform a variety of songs, ranging from the African American Spiritual, "Roll, Jordan, Roll," to a very unpredictable composition, "National Weather Forecast." Lindenwood's premiere vocal ensemble, Voices Only, will present favorites such as "Eleanor Rigby" and Scott Joplin's "The Entertainer." All of the choirs will come together to sing holiday favorites to close out the evening.

LU Orchestra Concert

Thursday, November 19, 2009

7:30 p.m.

Maestro Shane Williams invites you to experience the Lindenwood University Symphonic Orchestra in an evening of fabulous music featuring the talented Lindenwood musicians. The orchestra will perform Mozart's "Impresario Overture", Aaron Copland's "Fanfare for the Common Man," and Offenbach's "Orpheus In The Underworld," along with other works by Sibelius, Schubert and Gershwin.

LU Jazz Concert

Friday, November 20, 2009

7:30 p.m.

The Lindenwood University Jazz Band concert will feature contemporary and traditional big band literature from well known composers to original music by Lindenwood students. Some of the highlights include "I Remember Clifford," "How High the Moon," "Cousin Jeff" and the vocal "I Can't Believe That You're in Love With Me," as recorded by the New York Voices. The Fort Zumwalt South Jazz band will begin the concert, so be there for a great night of jazz.

Lindenwood University, founded in 1827, is an independent liberal arts university offering 84 undergraduate degree programs and 37 graduate programs in diverse areas of study in traditional and accelerated formats. Lindenwood operates a residential campus in historic St. Charles, as well as 10 extension sites throughout the St. Louis Metropolitan area.
