ST. CHARLES, MO., MARCH, 1918.

No. 9.

Entered at the St. Charles, Missouri, Post Office as second class matter.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE'S FATHERS, BROTHERS, UNCLAS AND COUSINS IN THE SERVICE.

"I am with you, if you are with me," said President Wilson, in an address in Buffalo, November 12. And to look over the lists of men fighting for the sake of the cause of Democracy, it may be concluded that the American people are with him and with each other.

The personnel alone, represented by the relatives, meaning fathers, brothers, uncles, and cousins of the faculty members and the girls of Lindenwood College proves something in itself. Their ranks range from private to brigadier general and admiral, and their distance ranges from India to Alaska. They represent practically every branch of the service.

Martha Amis: Will Smith, Infantry, Hawaiian Islands, cousin; Ben Smith, Camp Beauregard, La., cousin.

Contance Adamson: Bryan Adamson, Somewhere in France, cousin.

RECITALS

A recital of decided interest at the college was that given by Miss Ariel Gross and Miss May Pero, members of the musical faculty.

Throughout the Chopin group, as well as in the Schumann, MacDowell, and Verdi-Liszt group, Miss Gross showed fine musicianship, thorough training, and a pleasing style. Judging from the responsiveness of her audience, a very promising musical future is in store for her.

This recital marked the Lindenwood debut of Miss May Pero. Miss Pero possesses a rich mezzo voice with an exceptional range. She is able to sing the most difficult works with ease. Her style is charming and from the beginning of her aria to the end of her song group she had splendid success with her audience, owing to her beautiful tone quality, careful phrasing, and clean enunciation. Miss Pero has been equally successful as a teacher, and together with Miss Frances Oldfield, whose excellent results in teaching are now in evidence, Lindenwood College can truthfully boast of a really excellent voice department.

The Student Recital given February 14 was a success from every standpoint. The pupils of Miss Edna Schmitt, Miss Frances Oldfield and Director Leo. C. Miller did excellent work. Although the whole program was done from memory, not one mishap occurred. This is all the more remarkable in view of the fact that a number of the works performed were very difficult. The program was as follows

CAMPUS NOTES

It was early last fall that Miss Mary Louise Palmer, instructor of Textiles and Clothing, asked some of the girls to contribute a quarter each so that she could buy material with which to make clothing for French orphans. She reported, January 28, that thirty garments—baby rompers, undershirts, waists and dresses for "nine-years-old"—with a check for seventeen dollars to be used for stockings, had been sent to the American Fund for French wounded.

The work was done by the faculty and students—sometimes on Saturday mornings, and sometimes in the evening.

In each little pocket was put five bright shining pennies, a handkerchief, and a little French note written by some of the girls in the French classes.

Two former students have enrolled this semester, Miss Carol Whitmarsh ('15-'16) of Texarkana, Ark., and Miss Alice Amis ('17) of Fordyce, Ark. Other students who enrolled are: Miss Annie Laurie Bloodworth, St. Louis; Miss Mildred Martin, Morrilton, Mo.; Miss Mae Ricker, Maitland, Mo.; Miss Harriet Hill, Topeka, Kans.; Miss Miriam Kennedy, St. Louis; Miss Ruth Phillips, Webster Groves; Miss Hazelle Moran, Albany, Mo.

The December Bulletins which were lost in the Express office have not, as yet, been traced.

"Laboratory Outlines in Botany," a book by Miss Lena A. Barber M. S., head of the Biology department of Lindenwood College, is being successfully used in the botany classes. The book is not intended for home study, but to aid the student in making her experiments in the laboratory. It contains concise, clear instructions from the instruments needed, how to use the microscope, to the method of conducting the experiments and suggestions as to what the experiments should reveal. Miss Barber does not go as far as some botanists in her suggestions—she leaves a little of the joy of discovery to the student.

The Kansas Club has twenty-two members. The officers are: Miss Helen Peck, President; Miss Maurine Firestone, Vice-President; Miss Cleora Jenner, Secretary; and Miss Frances Conklin, Treasurer.

Miss Martha Castles, president of the Hiker's Club, won the numerals given as the prize for the girl averaging the most miles for the first semester. According to her pedometer Miss Castles walked 126 miles—that is, on hikes and the daily walks.

The Hiker's Club was organized in 1916 to encourage the girls to do more walking.

Mrs. G. S. Rowley, of Carthage, visited her daughter, Elizabeth, January 26, 27 and 28.

Saint Valentine's day was celebrated at Lindenwood with a birthday dinner for the girls and members of the faculty whose birthdays come in February or August. The dining room was decorated with small red hearts and cupids hung from the ceiling.

Twenty-nine were seated at the birthday table, presided over by the Rev. Dr. V. L. Roemer and Mrs. Roemer. The Lindenwood orchestra composed of Miss Ethel Carlton, harp; Miss Frances Carlton, Miss Marjorie White, Miss Josephine Russel, violin; Miss Velma Thompson, saxophone; Miss Marian Haire, piano and Miss Nadine Irwin, drums, furnished the music between courses.

At the cutting of the birthday cake the dime was won by Suzaine Brecht of Falls City, Nebr., the thimble by Miss Alice Marie Le Feber, of Milwaukee, the ring by Ruth Keeling, of Mitchell, S. Dakota.

The following officers were elected at a recent meeting of the Missouri Club: Miss Martha Castles, President; Miss Christine Webster, Vice-President; Miss Ann Niccolls, Secretary; Miss Betty Johnson, Treasurer. Miss Elizabeth Clark and Miss Dorothy Vinyard will have charge of the "Missouri Club" page in the Annual.

Miss Rose Sweeney, Miss Sarah Findley, Miss Grace Godfrey, Miss Lena Barber, Miss Mary Lear, Miss Ariel Gross, and Miss Pauline Jones, members of the faculty living in Niccolls Hall, entertained the faculty of the College, the new girls, and the girls of Niccolls Hall with a delightful tea in the sun parlör, February 7, between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock. Mrs. J. L. Roemer presided at the tea table. During the afternoon music was furnished by Mrs. J. H. (Kathryn Yourtee) Werner Jr., of St. Charles, violinist; Miss Ethel Carlton, harpist, and Miss Mary Ford soloist.

Miss Lucinda de L. Templin, Miss Frances Haire, Miss Josephine MacLatchy, Miss Dorothy Biederwolf, Miss Elizabeth Brooks and Miss Edna Schmitt, members of the faculty living in Butler Hall, and Mrs. Effie Roberts, matron of Butler Hall, entertained with a reception from 4 until 5 o'clock, February 1. Invitations were limited to the faculty of the College, and to the students living in Butler Hall.

The seniors of Lindenwood College have become a distinct and envied body of students. They have recently been distinguished by having bestowed upon them privileges all their own.

First, seniors may sleep through "Rising Bell" on Saturday and Sunday mornings. Their less fortunate fellow—students must rise by bell, dress by bell, and—eat. This is one of the most coveted privileges—to slumber on while the others are down eating breakfast.

Second, seniors may go down town on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday afternoons. This may seem trivial to the outsider, but to the student—body, no greater boon could be granted. The seniors may enjoy banana split, hamburger sandwiches, and peanuts—but the underclassmen can only wait until her senior year when dreams come true.

Miss Rose Sweeney has done much to help the Y. W. C. A. and her interest and work are attracting many girls.

When a request for warm knitted garments came from Miss Sweeney's brother, Col. W. C. Sweeney on General Pershing's staff in France, she collected many odd bits of yarn and invited the girls to come to the Y. W. C. A. rooms prepared to knit these various pieces of yarn into ten inch squares. These squares have been put together into a warm comfort.

Miss Sweeney also made many knitting bags with the proceeds from the sale of these bags she has bought yarn which is now being made into helmets and sweaters. The girls knit during "Story Hour" every Monday from 5 until 6 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. rooms. Bible stories are told by the students.

The following girls have been elected officers of the Arkansas Club: Miss Mae Bryant, President; Miss Martha Scroggins, Vice-President; Miss Mildred Roetzel, Secretary; Miss Ruth Southard, Treasurer. Miss Willie Overton Minor was chosen sponsor. There are fifteen girls in the Club. Their motto is, "We ain't so pretty, but we does so cute."

Miss Frances Dunwoody, of Joplin, has been the guest of her sister, Miss Mary Dunwoody.

Mrs. Ella Templin has been the guest of her daughter, Miss Lucinda de L. Templin, dean of the College.

G. K. Williams, of Farmington, visited his daughter, Miss Alma Williams.

Miss Zeta Anderson, Epworth, Iowa, has succeeded Miss Anne Raynor as teacher of the Romance Languages. Miss Anderson received her A. B. degree from Cornell, and lacks but a few hours toward her A. M. degree at the University of Wisconsin. She has taught two years in the high school at Tampico, Illinois.

ALUMNAE NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. E. Reinkenderff announce the marriage of their daughter, Alma to Mr. Blaine Zuver, Tuesday, February 12, at Canton, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Zuver will be at home after March 10 at 1218 East Main street, Massillon, Ohio. Mrs. Zuver was a student at Lindenwood during the year '16 and '17.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Harding announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Charity to Mr. Allen Peak Stuart, February 5, East St. Louis, Ill.

The January meeting of the St. Louis Lindenwood Club proved to be one of the most interesting, as well as highly instructive, of the season.

We met at Hotel Statler, Wednesday, January 14. Our accustomed business meeting preceded the afternoon program. The main item of business interest was the voting of one hundred dollars to the St. Louis branch of Y. M. C. A. for war relief purposes.

The feature of the afternoon was a lecture on food conservation by Miss Efalae Brown, one of our leading local instructresses in dietetics, domestic science, and relative subjects. The lecture was of an informal nature and open question followed.

Following this talk, tea was served. Then the Club was invited into the auditorium to hear Sir Walter Roper Lawrence, formerly a member of General Haig's staff, lecture on "England and the War."

We left that room with our hearts and minds astir, and with a firmer determination than ever, to do our bit.—Mrs. J. T. (Tonia Carr) Vogt.

The Kansas City Lindenwood Club met February 8, at the Ormond Hotel. The hostesses were Mrs. E. B. (Martha Miller) Gray, class of '05; Mrs. Paul (Nelle Quinlan) Donnelly, and Mrs. Herrod.

Musical numbers were given by Mrs. A. J. (Nydia Cecanko) Heaton, class of '10; Mrs. Sam J. (Frances Moffett) Cleeton, and Mrs. Geo. V. (Gladys Meyers) Metzger.

Mrs. Isaac Stephens read a paper on, "Past Wars Leading up to America's Part in the Present War."

Mrs. William Cramer, manager of the Collegiate Alumnae Association of Kansas City, gave a talk on Vocational Guidance.

The St. Louis Lindenwood Club gave $100 to the Lindenwood College Y. M. C. A. war relief fund.

My Dear Miss Templin:

Your note requesting alumnae information has just reached me. My life since leaving Lindenwood has been quite busy and full as in boarding school days. Those were especially busy for me, I suppose because I always did enough office work and teaching to pay my expenses beside my regular schedule.

I would have received my A. B. from Oberlin this June, but my father died this summer, so I have gone on with his business here at home.

I have been interested in the remarkable progress L. C. is making. You see I belong to the times of just two dormitories,—Sibley and Jubilee, and those were none too full. So, when I read about the thickly populated campus and Ganz recitals—I wonder if I would recognize L. C. if I met her face to face.

I'm so glad that all these nice things have happened to the dear old place. I remember sitting out in the apple orchard (is it still there), looking over to the river (don't you love that view) and dreaming what I would do for Lindenwood when I grew rich! But I doubt if my dreams have equalled the transformation that seems to have taken place.

Thank you for your good wishes, and may I thank the sender of the College Bulletin and the calendar.

Most Cordially,
Frances Fales, Class of '13.
Jerseyville, Ill.

My Dear Mrs. Roemer:

I want to thank you for remembering me with that attractive little calendar. I had lots of fun picking out familiar faces, but I couldn't find you at all. Dr. Roemer looks perfectly happy with his big family, and his family with him. My, how many times I wish I was still one of his girls. I was looking over my book this afternoon, and it made me fairly homesick to be back there having the good times one has at Lindenwood. I'll never forget my year there, and the many things that you both did for me.

I literally eat the Bulletin up when it comes, to see what you have been doing. You certainly have been doing things, too! Here's to Lindenwood for 1918—may it be a record breaker in every way.

Wishing you and Doctor Roemer a very happy and successful year,

Sincerely Yours,
Louise Lansing, Class of '16.
