

Up in Flames

Delilah Abell

Beautiful and talented

All women envy her, all men want her.

But her eyes lock on one thing... power.

An actress by day... arsonist by night.

Manipulation and force are her key to success

She auditions and is accepted, it's very rare that she is rejected.

If she is rejected, well... they will surely pay.

Their company will go up in flames.

So, as you can see, entertainment industries have no voice.

Casting her as the lead is their best and only choice.

In sad way, she's gets away with it.

Destruction and chaos

She's even enjoys it.

A warning to all entertainment industries

The next time you see the name Delilah Abell

Remember to give her the lead role.

Never, Never, never reject her.

Or you will burn in her hell hole.

It's not difficult to recognize her

Eyes that are hazel, and bright as the sun.

Brunette hair that looks black from a distance.

Olive skin that's oil resistant.

From the looks of it, she seems innocent in a way.

But as you know, your true self always gives you away.

Her indication is the look of hatred

Eyes changing into a lifeless black

The saying goes "If looks could kill, you be dead."

With her death stare, you can't never get that image out of your head.

Once again, I plead, cast her as the lead.

Your company will be safe... And undemolished.

But most of all, make sure that one day she will pay.

Justice will be served.

Her luxurious life will... go up in flames.
