

"THE TIGHTWAD"

A COMEDY IN THREE ACTS

By ROBERT KEITH

---

Presented by

Y. W. C. A. of LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

SAINT CHARLES, MISSOURI

---

DIRECTOR

LUCILE CRACRAFT

What would happen if a generous spendthrift should suddenly realize that the girl he loves has postponed the wedding a year in order to train him in economy?

"The Tightwad" answers this question.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

John Taylor . . . . .	Virginia Furnish
Mrs. Taylor, his wife . . . . .	Wilene Browning
Edna Taylor, his daughter . . . . .	Ruth Talbott
Elmer Taylor, his son . . . . .	Muriel Wiesbaum
Mamie Harris, a friend . . . . .	Catherine Disque
Tommy Jordan, a friend . . . . .	Marcella Schmitt
Orval Stone, a friend . . . . .	Anna Marie Balsiger
Larz Anderson, a servant . . . . .	Charlotte Jegi
Mrs. Anderson, a servant . . . . .	Pauline Brown
Martha Anderson, a servant . . . . .	Frances Levers
Taxi Driver . . . . .	Marjorie Wycoff

Time: Present.

Place: Quincy, Illinois.

Act I. Living room of Taylor home.

Act II. The same. One year later.

Act III. The same. One week later.

---

ROEMER AUDITORIUM

Thanksgiving Day, November 28, 1929

SEVEN-THIRTY O'CLOCK

---