

"The Youngest"

by

PHILIP BARRY

Presented by the Y. W. C. A. of Lindenwood College

THE play, "The Youngest," by Philip Barry, deals with the overcoming of the inferiority complex of the youngest member of a large, wealthy, and aristocratic family. The play is a modern comedy; the characters impress one as being real people; and the situations are delightful.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Charlotte Winslow . . .	Ruth Lindsay Hughes
Oliver Winslow . . .	Marcia Wallace
Mark Winslow . . .	Margaret Keesor
Augusta Winslow Martin	Dorothy Fogwell
Alan Martin . . .	Ruth Bullion
Martha Winslow . . .	Jean Whitney
Richard Winslow . . .	Lucy Seaman
Nancy Blake . . .	Margaret Fagg
Katie	Helen Hansman

Act I—The living-room of the Winslows' house. Late June.

Act II—The porch. Fourth of July.

Act III—The living-room. The following evening.