Sir:

I enclose you herein the receipt of Edward Davis for $97.34 him for services to the United States under the Commission to mark out a Road to N. The absence of Col. Reeves from home and other causes have prevented the forwarding of this voucher sooner-- I will thank you to acknowledge its receipt. The other parts of your communication of 20th April last will be attended to as soon as I can have intercourse with my late colleagues, who have both been absent from home one of them not even yet returned.

I am respectfully sir,
