Fort Osage, May 11, 1811.

Sir:

I wrote you on the 1 of March last advising you of my having directed G. Comegys & Company to pay you seventy five dollars for me on account of the hire of your negro boy Bark, which you have no doubt received ere this. I now enclose you my draft on Gen. Clark for Thirty-Seven Dollars which is in full for the hire of your Boy up to and including the 15th of this month about which time you will probably receive the Boy. I shall leave here in a few days to be absent about two months if the contractors boat should not arrive before I start (by which I shall send your Boy down) I shall leave directions for him to be sent down in her and left at Capt. Coherry's at St. Charles---Any errors in the account between us can be adjusted when I see you again.

Please to tender my compliments to Mrs. C. and believe me to be sir.

Yours very obdient servant.

G. C. Sibley.

Mr. James Calloway,
c/o of Mr. Wherry Esq.
St. Charles, Mo.
