LINDENWOOD

Fourth Annual Sibley Day Slated for February 22

February 9, 2012

Lindenwood University will host its fourth annual Sibley Day on Wednesday, Feb. 22, on the St. Charles campus in honor of university founders George and Mary Sibley. Students will be excused from classes in order to attend their choice of more 30 presentations and events scheduled throughout the day.

Sibley Day began in 2009 as an opportunity for faculty, staff, and students to expand their knowledge base and to celebrate the school's philosophy of offering unique educational experiences. This year's event, themed "Rocking It Out," will offer a wide range of activities designed to appeal to several different areas of interest.

A keynote presentation will be delivered through the university's Speaker Series by Reed Timmer, renowned storm chaser and meteorologist, at 10 a.m. in the Bezemes Family Theater of the university's J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts. Other events will include a molten iron pour workshop, presentations on budgeting and professional development, a wiffle ball tournament, and dance and exercise classes.

The 2012 Sibley Day lineup also features a sweepstakes contest. Lindenwood students will receive raffle tickets and deposit the stubs into collection boxes located at each event. A total of eight prizes, including tickets to the St. Louis Cardinals' opening day, three iPod Shuffles, three Lindenwood jackets from the Spirit and Supply Shoppe, and a $100 gift card to First Capital Trading, will be awarded from the collected tickets at the event's conclusion.
