

ANNUAL RECEPTION

FRIDAY EVENING.

Faculty and Students of Lindenwood Entertained Their Friends.

The annual reception given by the faculty and students of Lindenwood Friday evening was an enjoyable event. There were about 200 guests present, many of whom came from St. Louis. Rev. J. G. Reaser and Dr. M. H. Reaser, Miss Smock and a member of each class received and welcomed the guests as they arrived. The entertainment consisted of a Shakespearian burlesque, "Place aux Dames," represented in character by Miss Cora Pritchard as Lady Macbeth, Miss Irene Loda as Juliet, Miss May Williams as Portia, and Miss Cora Meville as Ophelia.

Miss Ellis rendered a piano solo and Miss Lund sang.

Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee, were served as the concluding number.
