SYNOPSIS OF THE PLAY

ACT—I SCENE—I Duke Theseus has won Hippolyta for his bride and his wedding is about to be celebrated—Egeus claims judgment upon his daughter Hermia, because she wishes to wed Lysander, instead of Demetrius, whom Helena loves.

SCENE II—The workmen of Athens plan a play for the Duke's wedding night.

SCENE III—Oberon, king of the fairies is vexed, because his queen will not obey. He decides to punish her; also Demetrius who scorns the fair Hermia.

ACT—II SCENE—I Puck receives his commission, but makes a mistake, anoints the wrong eyes.

SCENE II—Clowns practise their play. Bottom becomes translated and Titania falls in love with him. Puck's mistakes make still more trouble.

ACT III—SCENE I—Titania repentant and forgiven. Puck remedies all errors.

SCENE 2. The workmen of Athens present their play before the duke and his court.
