Lindenwood University to Host Educator Resource Fair April 16

St. Charles, Mo. — Lindenwood University will host an Educator Resource Fair from 3 to 6 p.m. on Tuesday, April 16, in the Anheuser-Busch Leadership Room of the Spellmann Campus Center, located on the St. Charles campus at 209 South Kingshighway, St. Charles, Mo., 63301. The free event will showcase a variety of local organizations and the supplemental resources they offer to local educators.

“Teachers, pre-service teachers, scout leaders, and parents are invited to come and discover the fabulous resources available for educators and youth group organizers,” said event organizer Frank Thouvenot, PhD, associate professor and sponsor of the Kappa Delta Pi Educator Honor Society in the Lindenwood School of Education. “Attendees can learn about the wide range of educational materials that are available from museums, cultural institutions, and other organizations through the Resource Center Network.”

More than two dozen groups are expected to be represented at the event. Confirmed participants include the World Aquarium, Challenger Learning Center-St. Louis, the Missouri Botanical Gardens, the Saint Louis Zoo, and more.

No registration is required. For more information or a full list of participating organizations, contact Thouvenot at fthouvenot@lindenwood.edu or visit www.lindenwood.edu.

Lindenwood University, founded in 1827, is an independent liberal arts university offering more than 130 graduate and undergraduate programs in diverse areas of study in traditional and accelerated formats.

Lindenwood operates residential campuses in historic St. Charles, Mo., and Belleville, Ill., as well as numerous extension sites throughout the St. Louis Metropolitan Area.
