

"White Collars"

by

EDITH ELLIS

Presented by the Y. W. C. A. of Lindenwood College

THE play, "White Collars," by Edith Ellis, deals with the "White Collar Brigade" and the "Great Middle Class." We see William Van Luyn, a billionaire, trying to understand and appreciate this great middle class as sponsored by Henry. He is impressed only by its class consciousness and its unjust attitude toward Capital, which he proceeds to change in a startling and effective manner.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

William Van Luyn.....	Marion Eldredge
Joan Thayer.....	Pauline Short
Cousin Henry.....	Virginia Hoover
Helen Thayer.....	Elizabeth French
Mr. Thayer.....	Dorothy Shirley
Mrs. Thayer.....	Elizabeth Tracy
Frank Thayer.....	Margaret Keesor
Sally Van Luyn.....	Harriet Collins
Tom Gibney.....	Martha Brinkerhoff

Act I, Scene 1—Portion of William
Van Luyn's private office.

Scene 2—Dining-room of the Thayer flat. Same day.

Act II—Parlor of the Thayer flat;
a month later.

Act III, Scene 1—Dining-room of the Thayer
flat; ten days later.

Scene 2—The same evening.