Honors Convocation Sunday at J. Scheidegger Center

April 17, 2013

Lindenwood University will host its annual Honors Convocation ceremony at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 21 at the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts.

The ceremony recognizes some of the top student academic performances of the year, including the coveted Easton and Sibley awards, given to the male and female seniors who best exemplify the ideals of scholarship, leadership, loyalty, and service to the university and the community. Nearly 2,500 Lindenwood University students will be honored at the event.

Several honors and awards will also be given out by each of Lindenwood's academic schools. A reception immediately follows the program.
