Welcome to our Sondheim Tribute Revue. Stephen Sondheim’s work is a profound exploration of the human condition, delving into themes of love, loss, life choices, death, and hope. His lyrics and melodies capture the complexities of our emotions and the pivotal moments that shape our lives.

In this revue, we celebrate not only Sondheim’s genius but also the incredible efforts of our talented cast of Lindenwood students. It has been a joy to watch them embrace these themes with openness, humor, and a deep commitment to their craft. Their dedication and passion bring Sondheim’s timeless stories to life, offering a fresh perspective on his enduring legacy.

A special shout out to our student costume designer, Emma Miller, who brings a sophistication and whimsy that perfectly complements Sondheim’s work, and to our student stage management team, Aeryn Richardson and Abbie Hayden, for their invaluable support and leadership.

Thank you for joining us. We hope you find as much joy and reflection in these performances as we have found in bringing them to you.
