LUTV Upgrades Video Stream

July 12, 2012

Lindenwood's student-run cable television station was one of the first educational TV outlets to offer a 24/7 video stream online. At the time it was first offered, the small display was the industry standard. Peter Carlos, LUTV Station Manager, is proud to announce that the streaming display has been upgraded. It provides a much better picture, has a bigger default display, and can be enlarged to full screen without losing a great deal of the resolution. Give it a try. Click the LUTV logo on the bottom right of the LU home webpage, then click on "Watch LUTV Live Now." Or simply go to <http://www.lindenwood.edu/lutv/streaming.html>
