RAMS COO DEMOFF TO SPEAK WITH KARRAKER AT HARMON HALL

February 19, 2014

Lindenwood University will present an evening with Kevin Demoff, chief operating officer for the St. Louis Rams, at 7 p.m. on February 26 in Harmon Hall's Dunseth Auditorium on the St. Charles campus.

Lindenwood alumnus Randy Karraker of ESPN Radio, 101.1 FM, will engage in a question-and-answer session with Demoff, delving into topics that could include Demoff's career path to this point, his vision for the future of the Rams, and the upcoming NFL draft. Other matters up for discussion may include the issues surrounding the team's lease for the Edward Jones Dome, concussions in football, and the new NFL rules governing illegal hits and tackles. Demoff will also take questions from the audience.

"Hosting Kevin Demoff on the Lindenwood campus gives our students the unprecedented opportunity to gain personal insight into the business of sport and the National Football League," said Molly Hudgins, chair of the Sport Management Department at Lindenwood University.

The evening is presented by the Lindenwood University Sport Management Program, the official sport management program of the St. Louis Rams.
