BROCK BOBBLEHEAD NIGHT SPONSORED BY LINDENWOOD UNIVERSITY

July 20, 2015

A limited edition Lou Brock Bobblehead will be distributed to the first 25,000 fans (age 16 and up) at Busch Stadium for the Cardinals-Rockies game on July 31, recognizing the trade that brought Hall of Famer Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1964, and Lindenwood University has a big role in the event.

Lindenwood is the sponsor of Lou Brock Bobblehead Night, and a Lindenwood logo is on all of the bobbleheads. It was a natural fit for the university, since Lou's wife, Jackie, is a member of the Lindenwood University Board of Directors, and she and Lou can be found at numerous Lindenwood events.

The university's beautiful baseball-softball complex is named after Lou, and he and Jackie generously partner with the university each year designating revenue from the Lou Brock Golf Tournament for Lindenwood scholarships.

For discounted field box tickets to the game and for a chance to receive a special edition Lou Brock Bobblehead, please go to cardinals.com/lindenwood.
