LINDENWOOD DEPARTMENT OF THEATER ADAPTS DICKENS' CHRISTMAS CAROL

November 9, 2015

Back by popular demand, A Christmas Carol is returning to the Lindenwood Theater main stage for 2015, continuing a yearly tradition of presenting Charles Dickens' much-loved story. Performances will be Dec. 3-5 at 7:30 p.m. in the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts. Tickets for assigned seating are available from $10-$18 at the Scheidegger Center Box Office.

This timeless classic follows the tale of Ebenezer Scrooge on a fantastic journey through time and space, forced to confront his past, present, and future through the aid of his spiritual guides.

"This production is the perfect way to get into the Christmas spirit and to reflect upon the true meaning of the season," said Peter Colombatto, director of theater marketing. "With tickets beginning at just $10, we promise you a wonderful night out, perfect for the whole family."

Group rates are available. For more information, call the box office at (636) 949-4433, or visit LUBoxOffice.com.
