FRANK SINATRA JR. CONCERT RESCHEDULED DUE TO ILLNESS

December 16, 2015

The Frank Sinatra Jr. concert, Sinatra Sings Sinatra, scheduled for Dec. 19 at the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts, has been rescheduled for 8 p.m. on May 21 due to an illness suffered by the artist. Throughout the next week, members of the Lindenwood University Box Office staff will individually contact ticket holders for the sold-out show to exchange tickets or provide refunds.

Sinatra's performance is sponsored by Centene Charitable Foundation.

"We want to thank our patrons for their patience and understanding regarding the reschedule of Mr. Sinatra's performance," said Peter Colombatto, the Scheidegger Center's director of marketing and patron services. "The support we receive from our community is what makes Lindenwood's Scheidegger Center so special. While we are disappointed we can't share Mr. Sinatra's excellent show with you this holiday season, we are looking forward to his performance in May."

For more information about the J. Scheidegger Center for the arts and its schedule of upcoming performances, visit www.LUboxoffice.com or call (636) 949-4433.
