2016 HONORS CONVOCATION SET TO AWARD ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

April 13, 2016

Friends and family of honors award recipients are invited to Lindenwood University's 2016 Honors Convocation at 2 p.m., Sunday, April 24, in the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts' Lindenwood Theater. After the presentation of university honors and awards, individual academic school awards will be presented in different rooms throughout the Scheidegger Center.

The university will present numerous individual academic achievement awards, and hundreds more students will be recognized as members of various honors societies and groups whose membership requires certain levels of academic achievement, such as fraternities, sororities, the honors college, and athletics honor rolls. Each academic school will present individual awards for academic success, as well.

In addition to the university and academic school awards, the Lindenwood Student Government Association is sponsoring five awards. Two of these awards, the Easton Award and the Sibley Award, are sponsored in conjunction with the Alumni Association.

Lindenwood Provost Marilyn Abbott, PhD, will host the convocation, which will also feature a performance from Lindenwood's a cappella group Voices Only and remarks from Lindenwood University System President Michael Shonrock, PhD.
