TICKETS ON SALE NOW FOR WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S MACBETH

October 7, 2016

Lindenwood University's School of Arts, Media, and Communications and the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts announce William Shakespeare's Macbeth, presented by the Theatre Program at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 3-5 in the Scheidegger Center's Lindenwood Theater.

Audiences are invited to relive one of English theatre's darkest hours in William Shakespeare's chilling masterpiece. A stalwart warrior's fate is cornered between the maddening desire for power and what he must do to keep what he has taken. He has no choice but to fall into the hands of the sinister and supernatural to hold himself intact. A classic that has withstood the test of time, Macbeth dares its audience to question not only the value of human life, but the value of humanity itself.

Written by one of the Western world's greatest playwrights, the play blends history and fantasy into an unforgiving world of temptation, loss, and vengeance, where nothing is what it seems, and all things unravel into a sleepless hysteria that will drive even the greatest to the edge.

Tickets range in price from $10 to $18. For other information, visit LUBoxOffice.com or call the box office at 636-949-4433. The box office is located in Lindenwood's J.

Scheidegger Center for the Arts, at 2300 West Clay St., just west of First Capitol Drive in St. Charles.

The Scheidegger Center enriches the local community with performances and serves as a living laboratory for the arts for the students at Lindenwood University. The campus provides a secure atmosphere, with fully accessible facilities and a family-friendly environment.

In addition to Macbeth, the J. Scheidegger Center features multiple academic productions, including music series, dance concerts, theatrical performances, art exhibits, and fashion shows, as well as several community events throughout each season.
