Clay Target Classic Scheduled for April 13

March 24, 2017

Lindenwood University's Shotgun Sports Program will hold its Clay Target Classic event on April 13, at which supporters will have the opportunity to compete with each other and shoot with members of Lindenwood's national champion Shotgun Sports team.

The all-day event will be at St. Louis Skeet & Trap, 18854 Franklin Road in Pacific, Mo. Participants may practice starting at 11 a.m., with registration from 12 to 1 p.m., lunch (which is included) from 1 to 2 p.m., shooting and safety demonstration at 2 p.m., the sporting clays competition at 2:30 p.m., and cocktails with hors d'oeuvres and an auction at 5 p.m.

The cost for a team of four with an expert shooter from the Lindenwood team provided is $600. Individuals may participate for $175 each. The cost includes 100 targets per shooter, as well as ammunition, food, and beverages. Practice time and ammunition are available for purchase. All proceeds from the event benefit Lindenwood Shotgun Sports.

To register or for more information, contact Bryan Stone at bstone@lindenwood.edu or 636-627-2955. Sponsorships are available as well. Potential sponsors should contact Stone by April 7.

"It's hard to imagine a better way to celebrate and support the incredible success of the Lindenwood shooting team than by enjoying a round of sporting clays with friends and fellow supporters," said Dave Helms, attorney and longtime supporter of Lindenwood shotgun sports.

The Lindenwood Shotgun Sports team has won a record 13 consecutive national championships at the ACUI Collegiate Clay Target Championships in San Antonio, Texas.
