Liberty and Ethics Center to Co-host Business Ethics Panel with St. Charles Rotary Club

March 15, 2018

The Liberty and Ethics Center at Lindenwood University with the St. Charles Rotary Club will co-host a Business Ethics Panel from 11 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. March 22 at Harmon Hall's Dunseth Auditorium on the Lindenwood campus. The presentation is free and open to the public.

Guest speakers for the panel are Dr. Deb Ayres, vice-president for human resources at Lindenwood University; Lisa Bedian, communications director for the City of St. Peters, Mo.; Brandon Blakey, sales executive for 10x Genomics; and John Clark, president and CEO of Masterclock.

The topic of the discussion will focus on real-life ethical dilemmas experienced by local business professionals, including their firsthand, personal approach to resolution. A question-and-answer session with the audience will follow the discussion.

For more information, contact Carol Felzien in the Hammond Institute at 636-627-2915 or CFelzien@lindenwood.edu. The event is sponsored by the Liberty & Ethics Center at the Hammond Institute for Free Enterprise in partnership with the Rotary Club of St. Charles.
