Congratulations, Class of 2018

May 5, 2018

Lindenwood University in St. Charles, Mo., held its spring Commencement ceremonies May 4 and 5 with a graduate students' ceremony on Friday, May 4, and two undergraduate ceremonies on Saturday, May 5, at St. Charles Family Arena.

The graduate students' ceremony was for students receiving master's, specialist, and doctoral degrees. Two ceremonies on Saturday, May 5, were held for students receiving bachelor's degrees in the schools of Arts, Media, and Communications; Education; Health Sciences; Humanities; Sciences; and Accelerated Degree Programs and the Robert W. Plaster School of Business & Entrepreneurship.

“Our commencement ceremonies are our most joyous occasions of the year, as they represent the culmination of years of hard work by our students,” said Lindenwood University System President Michael D. Shonrock, Ph.D. “We love to see their smiles and excitement as they cross the finish line, and we wish them all the best as they move on to promising careers and the next phases of their lives.”

The university conferred 623 bachelor's degrees and 294 graduate degrees. Approximately 1,200 students, which includes July and August conferrals as well, took part in the three ceremonies.

Video of the ceremony was broadcast by Lindenwood's campus television station, LUTV-HD on Charter and AT&T U-Verse and on LUTV's YouTube channel. Links for streaming the ceremonies live or after the fact can be found at www.lindenwood.edu/academics/graduation/.
